Section 2 The chairmen of said appropriation committees shall be entitled to their actual traveling and hotel expenses incurred in the performance of their duties under this act which shall be paid from the respective contingent funds of the Senate and House of Representatives

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODWARD, Mr. President, the Governor of Pennsylvania thinks he knows how to spend the tax-payers' money better than the General Assembly—and he is not peculiar in that respect, it is true of all Governors and all Executive Officers—except the Lieutenant Governor—excuse me—all executive officers from the Burgess of Norristown to the King of Siam and of Abbyssinia or the King of Pennsylvania.

The Budget Officer proceeds with his hearings in the autumn. He sits in his private office and summons the heads of departments and hears their story; and he then, after everybody has been heard, produces a large black pencil and marks up the figures, mostly subtraction. And in due course he walks down to the Governor's Office and turns it over to the Governor in his private office; and he gets out the blue pencil. So, first it is black from Dr. King and then it is blue from Governor Pinchot, and we well realize at this stage of the game that it is very black and blue from the General Assembly.

Now, when the budget was in the making I heard that the Honorable William McCaig and the Honorable James Woodward went out and bought a battle-axe and a grindstone, and they have been sharpening up in the Department of Internal Affairs, where they store the unread statistics; and they are prepared to deal deadly blows to the Governor's budget—and I do not blame them at all. I think it is the duty of every General Assembly to resist the encroachments of the Chief Executive in this respect. This question has been settled afer a great many generations of warfare and no power can take from the General Assembly the right to say how the peoples' money shall be spent.

The bill which I have presented will change all this for the better. In my opinion you cannot write any proper budget, in any private office, whether it is the private office of the Budget Officer or of the Governor or of the Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations.

This bill provides that the Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, together with the Auditor General, shall participate with the Budget Officer in the preparation of the budget. I believe that if the General Assembly will pass this bill, that the budget—and the accompanying bill, the Appropriations bill—will come to us in good favor, and we will not try to have a budget written in a private office, or in mass meeting, as we have been trying to have it done here; and, instead of a poor foundling, which is put upon the door step of the Assembly by the Chief Executive, we shall have a perfectly beautiful budget baby.

When this is returned to the Governor, if he thinks the baby looks too much like Mr. McCaig or Senator Schantz, and not enough like Dr. King or himself, he may veto it. If he does that I, for one, am in favor of returning after the spring recess and passing it over the Governor's veto.

Schantz,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 116, entitled:

An Act to provide for the refunding by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to national banks of moneys heretofore held or possessed by national banks which were attempted to be made escheatable by an act approved the seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred seventy-eight) entitled "An act providing for the escheat of deposits of moneys or property of another received for storage or safe-keeping the dividends profits debts and interest on debts of corporations companies banks trust companies insurance companies limited partnerships and partnership associations organized under the laws of this Commonwealth except mutual saving-fund society not having a capital stock represented by shares and except also building and loan associations and property held for the benefit of another by the associations and property held for the benefit of another by the same and the profits accretions and interest on such property as well as interest thereon accrued or which should have accrued between the fixing of the amount of such property the award of any court and the actual distribution thereof" and amendments thereto which have been wrongly collected from said national banks by the said Commonwealth and making an appropriation

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I have the honor of being the sponsor of this bill but would like to have the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, explain it, as he can do so much more ably than I.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, explain the bill?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I shall be glad to do so.

Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Senate, this bill, which has been sponsored by the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, has for its object the appropriation of money with which to refund money paid into the State Treasury by the National Banks of the State under an act of Assembly requiring them to do so,—which Act of Assembly has been declared unconstitutional by the United States Supreme Court.

At the session of 1923, I think it was, this Assembly passed an act providing that all moneys which were on deposit in National Banks for a certain number of years were thereby escheated to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Acting upon that law the National Banks paid the money into the State Treasury. The law was thereafter declared unconstitutional by the United States Supreme Court, as I have said; and this bill proposes to appropriate money to refund this money to the National Banks, and there is a very good reason for doing so, in that the National Banks are responsible to the depositors to whose credit the account stood, if they come forward and demand it. And unless the Legislature appropriates this money the National Banks are in the position of having to pay the money out twice.

I had not intended to speak upon this bill but I consider it a very meritorious measure, and I hope the Senators will vote for it unanimously.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. SONES. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 992, (House Bill No. 965), on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of an act approved the eighth day of June one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three (Pamphlet Laws three hundred forty-five) entitled "An act relating to mandamus as amended be recommitted to the Committee on Banks and Building and Loan Associations.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, unless the Senator from Lycoming, Mr. Sones, has some good reasons for moving to recommit this bill to the Committee on Banks and Building and Loan Associations, I would like to see a vote taken on this bill to-night.

Mr. SONES. Mr. President, in answer to the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Barr, I will say that Mr. Sterling McNees, who drafted this bill, came to me to-day and asked me to recommit it for the purpose of a hearing.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to,

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 995, (House Bill No. 970), entitled:

An Act to amend an act approved the fourteenth day of May nineteen hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and twelve) entitled "An act providing for a system of government for boroughs and revising amending and consolidating the laws relating to boroughs" by adding an additional section to Article seventeen Chapter six thereof providing an additional method for meeting the cost of the construction of new water mains in connection with municipally owned water supply systems in boroughs by empowering boroughs to assess all or a part of the cost of such construction against the properties abutting thereon by the front foot rule and collect the same as municipal claims are now by law collected

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I would like to ask whether there is any Senator on the floor who can explain this bill.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I am not sure that I can explain all the objects of the bill, but I understand one of the objects of the bill is to permit boroughs to lay water pipe and thereafter to collect the amount of the cost of the water pipe from abutting property owners, and in this way to place the cost first on the borough and secondly on the property owners, with some system by which the original cost that is put up by the property owners may be rebated in the way of water rents. That is as I understand the purpose of the bill. It is not my bill, I am not the sponsor of it. That is my best knowledge of the bill.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, as I read the bill, and as I have had the bill read, it means just the opposite; people who are living out on the far edges of a town might have been in the borough a few years when a water works was brought into existence and they paid their share and will carry it along for years and then if the owners of intervening property which was not built up, and the scattered houses beyond were to ask for water after having paid for years and years on the bonded debt, must assume all the obligations from the place where the water line ends to the place to which the water line is extended. It seems to me that both this bill and the the bill following, the two bills, are most unfair, and if passed, I believe, that they would work a great hardship to people that the Senate would not care to have imposed upon them if they knew the situation.

BILLS RECOMMITTED.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 995, (House Bill No. 970), on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend an act approved the fourteenth day of May nineteen hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and twelve) entitled "An act providing for a system of government for boroughs and revising amending and consolidating the laws relating to boroughs" by adding an additional section to Article seventeen Chapter six thereof providing an additional method for meeting the cost of the construction of new water mains in connection with municipally owned water supply systems in boroughs by empowering boroughs to assess all or a part of the cost of such construction against the properties abutting thereon by the front foot rule and collect the same as municipal claims are now by law collected be recommitted to the Committee on Municipal Affairs for the purpose of a hearing.

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 996, (House Bill No. 971), on third reading, entitled:

An Act authorizing municipalities to acquire the plant of water companies in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania located wholly within or partly within and partly without the territorial limits of the municipality.

be recommitted to the Committee on Municipal Affairs for the purpose of a hearing.

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 997, (House Bill No. 972), entitled:

An Act to amend clause forty-four of section two of article one of chapter five of an act approved the fourteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and twelve) entitled "An act providing a system of government for boroughs and revising amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs

BILL OVER IN ORDER.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I ask that Senate Bill No. 998, (House Bill No. 974), on third reading, entitled:

An Act to repeal an act approved the seventh day of June Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws six hundred and seventy-seven) entitled "An act to amend an act approved the fourteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws six hundred and seventy-seven) entitled 'An act to amend an act approved the fourteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and twelve) entitled 'An act providing a system of government for boroughs and revising amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs' by adding additional subsection to section nine of article seven of chapter six thereof to empower boroughs without petition of property owners to grade pave curb macadamize or otherwise improve public streets or parts thereof and assess part of the cost thereof against the owners of the property abutting thereon when said streets or parts thereof do not exceed one thousand feet in length and connect two streets theretofore paved and improved' " go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1022, entitled:

An Act to further amend sections five hundred and six and five hundred and eight of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and nine) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith"

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. HOFFMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend section 1, page 3, line 12, by striking out the word "twenty-one" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "twenty-five"; also page 3, by striking out all of lines 13, 14, 15 and 16. Amend Sec. 1, page 3, line 17, by striking out the words "tificates of indebtedness"; also Sec. 2, page 5, line 1, by striking out the word "twenty-one" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "twenty-five"; also page 5, by striking out lines 3 to 9, both inclusive.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended by printed for the use of the Senate.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1024, entitled:

An Act prohibiting the investment of funds of building and loan associations in syndicated or equal loans where the same are divided between or among building and loan associations individuals or corporations

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend sec. 2, page 1, line 10, by striking out the word "or" being the last word in said line, and inserting in lieu thereof the word "and"

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1048, (House Bill No. 637), as follows:

An Act to amend section seventy-five of an act approved the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and sixty (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and eighty-two) entitled "An act to Consolidate Revise and Amend the Penal Laws of this Commonwealth" by providing that the penalty for murder of the first degree shall be either death or life imprisonment at the discretion of the jury or of the court as the case may be

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section seventy-five of the act approved the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and sixty (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and eighty-two) entitled "An act to Consolidate Revise and Amend the Penal Laws of this Commonwealth" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 75 That every person convicted of the crime of murder of the first degree shall be sentenced to suffer death [by hanging by the neck and it] in the manner provided by law or to undergo imprisonment for life at the discretion of the jury trying the case which shall fix the penalty by its verdict The court shall impose the sentence so fixed as in other cases In cases of pleas of guilty the court where it determines the crime to be murder of the first degree shall at its discretion impose sentence of death or imprisonment for life It shall be the duty of the clerk of the court wherein such conviction takes place and he is hereby required within ten days after such sentence of death to transmit a full and complete record of the trial and conviction to the Governor of this Commonwealth

Section 2 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, this bill changes the penal laws of the Commonwealth in first degree murder cases by making the penalty for that offense optional with the jury trying the case, or the judge in the case of guilty pleas.

I merely want to go on record at this time and state that while I intend to vote for this bill, out of compliment and by reason of the request of a very great number of my constituents, who are members of the Society of Friends, as were all my ancestors, yet that I am conscientiously and violently at heart opposed to the passage of the bill.

The Committee on Judiciary General held a hearing on the bill last week and I was very much impressed with the sincerity of the people who appeared before that committee advocating its passage. I merely want to state this matter of record in order that there may be no doubt of my own personal feelings in the matter.

The bill has been before this Legislature practically every session in the past eighteen years which I have been a member. As I recall it, the bill was vetoed by Governor Stuart, again by Governor Tener and again by Governor Brumbaugh, and the bill itself was defeated in the Legislature under Governor Sproul. I shall leave the discussion of the merits of the bill to some one else who may be more interested.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I had expected to vote against this bill until I heard those gentlemen, and I am perhaps the only case of a Senator who has ever been converted at a hearing from his previous conviction, and I was converted by what these gentlemen said, especially that the eight states which reverted to capital punishment did so with this qualifying clause of giving a jury the option between capital punishment and imprisonment for life, and as I am converted I want to stand up and tell you why.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—30.

Derrick,	Huffman,	McNichol,	Sones,
DeWitt,	Kunkle,	Quigley,	Sprowls,
Earnest,	Kutz,	Schantz,
Freeman,	Mansfield,	Snyder,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the House is requested.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1061, (House Bill No. 1236), entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws six hundred sixty-five) entitled "An act authorizing boroughs to redeem outstanding bonds and for that purpose issue and sell new interest-bearing bonds and to provide a fund for the redemption thereof"

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, if this bill passes the Senate and becomes a law it is a great question, in my mind, whether or not the Attorney General can tell the Governor what is constitutional. In the first place this act would allow any sub-division of the state to keep, in a way, forever a bonded debt, could keep on refunding it and refunding it, that there would be no end. The gentleman who is the sponsor of the bill, Mr. McClure, I believe it is Mr. McClure from Allegheny, and if there is any of the Allegheny Senators who are here, who care to have it sent back to the committee for the purpose of amendment, so that it can accomplish what Representative McClure wishes to have done, I have no objection. As the bill now stands I think it would be a mighty bad thing for any sub-division of a state to have that on the statute books. The Act of Assembly and the Constitution provide that you must levy, assess and collect a sum sufficient to pay a bonded debt when it has matured. In this case if you issue a bond at four and one half per cent and want to refund it at four per cent they could refund it from four per cent to four and one half, from four and one half to four and keep it going on forever and I do not think that the gentleman means to have that kind of an act spread on the statute books. If there are any Senators here who care to have it recommitted, I have no objection, otherwise I would have to vote against the bill.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I move that the bill be recommitted to the Committee on Municipal Affairs.

Mr. GRISWOLD. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1064, entitled:

A Joint Resolution disapproving the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States relative to the labor of persons under eighteen years of age

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

Barr,	Gelder,	Schantz,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, in order to relieve the nerves of some of the members and others I move that Senate Bill No. 1065, on third reading, entitled:

An Act for the protection of the public safety by providing as a prerequisite to the registration of motor vehicles for the establishment (including the continuance during the period of registration) of financial responsibility by owners thereof for injury including death resulting therefrom to persons or damage to property caused by or as the result of the negligent use maintenance or operation of such motor vehicles conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Secretary of Highways and his agents in connection therewith and for the enforcement thereof imposing certain duties upon owners of motor vehicles and upon insurance companies associations exchanes and corporations issuing policies and contracts to motor vehicle owners and providing penalties be recommitted to the Committee on Public Roads and Highways.

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1066, entitled:

An Act to amend Section 5 of an Act approved the 7th day of June A. D. 1917 entitled "An act relating to the descent and distribution of the real and personal property of persons dying intestate and to provide for the recording and registering of the decrees of the orphans' court in connection therewith and the fees therefor" by providing that a husband living separate and apart from his wife having committed adultery and charged in court therewith of which his plea and sentence on such charge shall be conclusive evidence shall not be permitted to participate in the wife's estate

And said bill having been read at length the third time.

On the question,

Mr. FREEMAN. Mr. President, on behalf of the Senator from Franklin, I ask unanimous consent to amend title, page 1, line 3, by inserting after the word "seventeen" the following: (P. L. 429); also sec. 1, page 1, line 5, by inserting after the word "seventeen" the following: (P. L. 429)

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1069, on third reading, entitled:

An Act requiring the Secretary of Highways to erect signs at dangerous crossings making it unlawful to proceed across crossings so designated without coming to a stop and providing a penalty be recommitted to the Committee on Public Roads and Highways.

Mr. STEELE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1077, (House Bill No. 418), entitled:

An Act authorizing and providing for the acquiring by agreement and operating by boroughs of water systems owned by corporations furnishing water within the acquiring borough and in adjacent townships or nearby boroughs authorizing the placing of liens upon and the issuing of obligations secured by the property acquired for the payment thereof and providing that the obligations shall be exempt from taxation for any purpose.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I move that the bill be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General, for the purpose of amendment.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

RESOLUTION EXTENDING FELICITATIONS TO REV. RUSSELL H. CONWELL

Mrs. VARE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mrs. VARE offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and agreed to.

Whereas, Russell H. Conwell has recently celebrated the eighty-second anniversary of his birth

And Whereas his life has been devoted to the upbuilding of humanity and the welfare of all peoples

And Whereas such a life has been of inestimable benefit to the State of Pennsylvania and its citizens—and an encouragement to the manhood and womanhood of the State, and an inspiration to the younger generation

Therefore (if the House concur) that our congratulations be extended to the Reverend Russell H. Conwell on the completion of 82 years of life, and that we extend to him our appreciation of the service that he has rendered to the citizens of our State

And be it further resolved that we extend to him our felicitations and the hope that he may have many further years of helpfulness and usefulness.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Chester, Mr. Eyre, will state his question of personal privilege.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, I have been informed that a rumor has been current on the floor of this Senate that I have made an effort to prevent the President Pro Tempore of the Senate from appointing on the conference committee on the General Appropriation Bill the distinguished Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, Senator Schantz. I want to take this method of denying, in the most emphatic terms, that I ever made any effort in that direction. On the contrary, in the two interviews that I had with the President Pro Tempore on this subject I told him that from my viewpoint by all means the Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations ought to be a member of that conference committee. It is the well established custom of this Senate that in all conferences the Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations is a member of that committee, and this Senate should not depart from that custom. In that I have stated to the President Pro Tempore my views and those, I think, will be corroborated, if there is any doubt about the position that I have taken in relation thereto.

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Lancaster, Mr. Homsher, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, the first information I had about any rumor to the effect was from the Senator from Chester, Mr. Eyre. I am here to state that I knew nothing of the rumor. He, nor any other Senator has asked me not to appoint Senator Schantz as one of that committee.

APPROVAL OF RESOLUTION RECALLING FROM THE GOVERNOR SENATE BILL NO. 20.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 2, 1925.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed a resolution of the Senate and House recalling from the Governor Senate Bill No. 20, for the purpose of amendment.

Accordingly, the original bill is herewith returned.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL NO. 20, RECALLED FROM THE GOVERNOR.

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed finally.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, I voted "aye".

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I voted "aye".

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed third reading.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, I move that the bill be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General, for the purpose of amendment.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

VETO OF SENATE BILL NO. 96.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 3, 1925.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I am returning without my approval Senate Bill No. 96 entitled, "An act to amend clause five of section three of the act approved the thirteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and nine (Pamphlet Laws five hundred and twenty) entitled, 'An act relating to food, defining food, providing for the protection of the public health and the prevention of fraud and deception by prohibiting the manufacture or sale, the offering for sale, or exposing for sale, or the having in possession with intent to sell of adulterated misbranded or deleterious foods, prescribing certain duties of the Dairy and Food Commissioner in reference thereto and providing penalties for the violation thereof' as amended."

This bill would amend clause five of section three of the Act of May 13, 1909, (P. L. 520) by striking out the provisions that when any quantity of sodium benzoate is used in any article of food or any quantity of sulphur dioxide is used in the preparation of dried fruits or molasses the fact that sodium benzoate or sulphur dioxide has been used in the preparation thereof shall by plainly stated on each package of such food. I am informed that this amendment of the law was proposed because it is not practicable to state on packages of dried fruits sold from bulk that sulphur dioxide has been used in their preparation.

Since the introduction into the General Assembly of the present bill the Department of Agriculture has amended its rules and regulations in such a way as to accomplish the purpose which the framers of the present bill had in mind. Accordingly the necessity for this legislation has disappeared.

It is very much more desirable that matters of this character should be regulated by rule or regulation which may be modified from time to time as circumstances require than that the food laws themselves be amended.

For these reasons I return the bill without my approval.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. EARNEST. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed finally.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. EARNEST. Mr. President, I voted "aye".

Mr. FREEMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. FREEMAN. Mr. President, I voted "aye".

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. EARNEST. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed third reading.

Mr. FREEMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. EARNEST. Mr. President, I move that the question together with further consideration of the bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. FREEMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

VETO OF SENATE BILL NO. 2.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 2, 1925.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I herewith return without my approval Senate Bill No. 2 entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Pennsylvania Institution for the Instruction of the Blind."

This bill makes an appropriation to the Pennsylvania Institution for the Instruction of the Blind for the purpose of the education of a definite number of State pupils at a maximum per capita rate.

Since the introduction of this bill the General Assembly has passed and I have approved Senate Bill No. 311 which establishes a new method for the payment of the tuition and maintenance of State pupils in semi-State institutions for the blind and for the deaf. It provides that the local districts shall pay twenty-five per centum of the cost of the tuition and maintenance and that the remaining seventy-five per centum shall be paid out of the appropriation made to the Department of Public Instruction for special education. The per capita cost of tuition and maintenance is to be determined by the Department of Public Instruction.

In order to render workable this admirable plan for the education of the State's deaf and blind children in semi-State institutions it is necessary that an appropriation be made to the Department of Public Instruction sufficient to enable the State's share of the tuition and maintenance of these pupils to be met. That appropriation was originally incorporated in the general appropriation bill, was stricken out by amendment, and has now been restored by amendment.

The bill which I am herewith returning is inconsistent with the action of this Legislature in enacting Senate Bill No. 311 which will enable a larger number of pupils to be cared for than could possibly be done under the method provided for in this bill.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed finally.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I voted "aye"

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I voted "aye"

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed third reading.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I move that the question together with further consideration of the bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

VETO OF SENATE BILL NO. 446.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 3, 1925.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I return herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 446, entitled, "An Act authorizing cities of the first class maintenance or continuance of maritime service between said to enter into contracts or agreements for the establishment cities and other ports by others providing among other things for the payment or guarantee of losses or deficiencies incurred therein."

This bill authorizes cities of the first class to enter into contracts with steamship companies and others for the maintenance of maritime service to and from its ports, and to guarantee, for fixed periods, the parties so contracted with against losses incurred by them in the maintenance of such service; also to lease and acquire wharves, docks and land, and to aid in the development thereof.

The concensus of public opinion in this State is against any branch of the Government entering into private business directly or indirectly, or lending its credit to any person or corporation. The people should not be taxed to support any private business.

Article IX Section 7 of the Constitution provides:

"The General Assembly shall not authorize any county, city, borough, township or incorporated district * * * to obtain or appropriate money for, or to loan its credit to any corporation, association, institution or individual."

This bill is in violation of this section of the Constitution in that it authorizes the city to loan its credit to a corporation, and also in that it authorizes the city to obtain and appropriate money for a corporation.

The Supreme Court has held that this provision of the Constitution forbade the union of public and private capital or credit in any enterprise whatever; that it prohibited municipal bodies from participating in any project originated by others, with a view to gain, in such manner as to incur pecuniary expenses or liability; and that it was intended to confine the municipal expenditures not only to public objects, but to public officers or agents under their direct responsibility to the municipality. (Wilkes-Barre Hospital vs. County of Luzerne, 84 Pa. 55, 59).

The subsidizing of steamship companies as provided in this bill is in conflict with the Constitution. I veto the bill with regret because other parts of it have real merit.

For this reason the bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass the objection of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed finally.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I voted "aye"

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I voted "aye"

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed third reading.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I move that the question together with further consideration of the bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

An Act to provide for the ordinary expenses of the executive, judicial and legislative departments of the Commonwealth, interest on the public debt, and the support of the public schools, for the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five; and for the payment of bills incurred and remaining unpaid at the close of the fiscal year ending May thirty-first, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, for the Senate to recede from its amendements to this bill would mean the elimination of the amendments inserted by the committee as well as those on the floor of the Senate; and I, therefore, move that a Committee of Conference be appointed to confer with a Committee on the part of the House of Representatives (if the House shall appoint such committee) to consider the differences existing between the two houses in relation to said bill.

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That Messrs. Schantz, Eyre and Stites be said committee on the part of the Senate, and that the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

RECONSIDERATION OF MOTION RECOMMITTING SENATE BILL NO. 637.

Mr. STITES. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 637, (House Bill No. 712), entitled:

An Act providing for the compensation of the county solicitor and the solicitor of the county controller in counties of the third and fourth class was recommitted to the Committee on New Counties and County Seats.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

BILL OVER IN ORDER.

Mr. STITES. Mr. President, I ask that Senate Bill No. 637, (House Bill No. 712), on third reading, entitled:

An Act providing for the compensation of the county solicitor and the solicitor of the county controller in counties of the third and fourth class go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 29.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 4th, 1925.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Ladies and Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 29, entitled "An act to amend section one of the act approved the fifteenth day of March one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws twenty) entitled 'An act regulating in criminal trials the cross-examination of a defendant when testifying in his own behalf' by prohibiting the introduction as evidence of certain testimony or records."

This Bill is practically the same as House Bill No. 365 of the Session of 1923, which was not approved by me (Veto of the Governor, Session 1923, page nine).

The Act of March 15, 1911, prohibited the elicitation from a defendant, who had offered himself as a witness in his own behalf, of any evidence tending to show that he has committed or been charged with, or been convicted of any offense other than the one wherewith he is then charged, or that he has been of bad character or reputation, unless he has offered evidence of his good character either affirmatively or by cross-examination of the Commonwealth's witnesses or has testified against a co-defendant.

This Act did not prohibit proof of such facts by the record of a former conviction when offered for the purpose of testing defendant's creditability as a witness.

This Bill amends the Act of 1911 by prohibiting the Commonwealth from affirmatively introducing into evidence any such testimony or any record, subject to the exception noted in the Act.

As stated in my former veto, I am unwilling to sign a measure which throws additional protection around those accused of crime beyond that already supplied by the Act of 1911, quoting therein the statement of Professor Wigmore with reference to the Act of 1911, that "This State (Pennsylvania) has now permitted the following vicious piece of legislation to slip in and thus tenderly to make it easier for astute defenders of villains to juggle their clients out of legal danger."

Wigmore on Evidence, Vol. 4, Sec. 2276, Note page 917.

In addition to the above objection I call your attention to the following effects of the provisions of this bill prohibiting the introduction by the Commonwealth of any evidence, by the testimony of any witness or by any record, tending to show that the defendant had committed or had been convicted of an offense other than the one wherewith he stands charged.

It would prevent proof of a former conviction by the record thereof for the purpose of applying the acts that provide for increased sentences in cases where the defendant has been theretofore convicted of certain offenses.

In case of the trial of a defendant charged with murder where it is alleged that such crime was perpetrated by means of poison, arson, rape, robbery or burglary, which under such circumstances is declared to be murder of the first degree, it would prevent the introduction of testimony tending to show that the defendant had committed such arson, rape, etc.

In many criminal trials evidence of the commission of other offenses by the defendant is admissible where such evidence is relevant as part of the res gestae; to prove identity of person or of crime; to prove guilty knowledge, intent, motive, system or malice; and to rebut special defenses. It would prevent the introduction of such testimony of such testimony for these purposes.

For these reasons the Bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

On the question,

Will the bill become a law, the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

VETO LAID UPON THE TABLE.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill, together with the veto, be laid upon the table.

Mr. TALBOT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 852.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 4, 1925.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives, of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Ladies and Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 852, entitled "An Act to reimburse Josephine Wrucina for overpayments to the State Treasurer."

I feel strongly that the proper method of refunding money paid by mistake into the State Treasury should be by provision of general laws covering the various classes of such mistaken payments and surrounding the inquiry with the safeguard of action by State governmental agencies like the Board of Finance and Revenue. The amount of such repayments made would then be restricted to the appropriations for that purpose made by the General Assembly from time to time.

Such general laws should also have in all instances except escheats, a definite limitation of time within which the State agency may consider claims for refund from the Treasury.

Prior to the passage of such laws, any special refunding act should not authorize such refund except after a finding by some competent officer or agency of the State Government that the facts claimed are true and that refund would be just and equitable. House Bill No. 852 has no provision for such investigation and determination, and it is not possible for me to have a proper investigation made on this or any other similarly defective bills within the short time during which such bills must be considered and acted upon finally.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law, the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

VETO LAID UPON THE TABLE.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill, together with the veto, be laid upon the table.

Mr. TALBOT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 1020.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 2, 1925.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives, of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Ladies and Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval House Bill No. 1020, entitled "An Act making an appropriation to the Western Pennsylvania School for the Blind located at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania."

This bill makes an appropriation to the Western Pennsylvania School at Pittsburgh for the purpose of the education of a definite number of State pupils at a maximum per capita rate.

Since the introduction of this bill the General Assembly has passed and I have approved Senate Bill No. 311 which establishes a new method for the payment of the tution and maintenance of State pupils in semi-State institutions for the blind and for the deaf. It provides that the local districts shall pay twenty-five per centum of the cost of the tuition and maintenance and that the remaining seventy-five per centum shall be paid out of the appropriation made to the Department of Public Instruction for special education. The per capita cost of tuition and maintenance is to be determined by the Department of Public Instruction.

In order to render workable this admirable plan for the education of the State's deaf and blind children in semi-State institutions it is necessary that an appropriation be made to the Department of Public Instruction sufficient to enable the State's share of the tution and maintenance of these pupils to be met. That appropriation was originally incorporated in the general appropriation bill, was stricken out by amendment and has now been restored by amendment.

The bill which I am herewith returning is inconsistent with the action of this Legislature in enacting Senate Bill No. 311 which will enable a larger number of pupils to be cared for than could possibly be done under the method provided for in this bill.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law, the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

VETO LAID UPON THE TABLE.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill, together with the veto, be laid upon the table.

Mr. TALBOT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

SENATE MESSAGE.

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives, numbered and entitled as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 51.

An Act to amend section ten of an act approved the twenty-seventh day of June one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five (Pamphlet Laws four hundred and three) entitled "An act creating the office of county controller in counties of this Commonwealth containing one hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants and over prescribing his duties and abolishing the office of county auditor in said counties" by changing the amount at which contracts must be advertised in counties of the second third fourth and fifth classes

With the information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend title, page 1, line 10, by striking out the word "first".

Amend section 1, page 2, line 7, by striking out the word "in"; also in the same line, by striking out the word "first".

Amend section 1, page 2, line 12, by striking out the word "five" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "three".

Mr. HOLTZMAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do non-concur in the amendments made by the Senate.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

SENATE MESSAGE.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON HOUSE BILL No. 61.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has insisted upon its amendments, nonconcurred in by the House of Representatives, to House Bill No. 61, entitled:

An Act relating to jurors excusing from jury duty women over sixty-five years of age and mothers of children under the age of five years

And has appointed Messrs. Leslie, Mansfield and Dewitt a committee of conference to confer with a similar committee of the House of Representatives (If the House of Representatives shall appoint such committee) on the subject of the differences existing between the two houses in relation to said bill.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. GOEHRING. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House recede from its non-concurrence in the amendments made by the Senate.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER. The "nays" appear to have it.

Mr. GOEHRING. Mr. Speaker, this is a bill in regard to women serving on a jury——

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, my point of order is that there is nothing before the House.

The SPEAKER. There is a motion before the House.

Mr. ALEXANDER. As I, understand it, Mr. Speaker, there is no motion before the House.

The SPEAKER. The motion before the House was voted upon, and the Chair announced that the "nays" appear to have it, but the decision on the vote has not yet been announced by the Speaker.

Mr. GOEHRING. Mr. Speaker, this is a bill that the House passed allowing women over 65 years of age——

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I insist upon my point of order. The only question before the House is the announcement of the vote.

The SPEAKER. The Chair rules that the point of order of the gentleman from Delaware is well taken.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The Speaker announced the "nays" appeared to have it.

Whereupon, a division was called for, and 103 members having voted in the affirmative, and 11 members in the negative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to.

Mr. GOEHRING. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. MARSHALL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Goehring, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GOEHRING. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. MARSHALL. Mr. Speaker, I would like the gentleman to explain what effect this bill as now amended has on the present law, whether it makes any change whatever. As I understand the bill now, any woman who has reached the age of sixty-five and asks to be excused, the court may excuse her. Cannot the court do that now?

Mr. GOEHRING. This bill gives them the right to ask for that privilege.

Mr. MARSHALL. Do they not have that right now?

Mr. GOEHRING. It is not a legal right, they have to give a reason to be excused.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, just the question that was asked at the present time was the reason I did not agree with the motion of the gentleman from Allegheny. It was his bill in the first place and it is amended now to mean just exactly what the law is at the present time. We have been wasting time in passing this bill, it means nothing whatever. To leave it on the statute books means nothing, because every court may, at the present time, excuse anybody the court desires; it doesn't make any difference whether it is a woman or who it is.

This bill simply gives them the right to do what the court has the right to do at the present time.

On the question recurring,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Section 16 All Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BURD P. EVANS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House. House Bill No. 640, now under consideration, should be briefly explained so that all may understand it in its present amended form.

The purpose of this bill is to regulate chiropractic and to properly protect the public. This bill provides that every Chiropractor now practicing in this State must take an examination before a board of examiners appointed by the Governor.

The examination is to include every branch of science practiced by the Chiropractor. The Board of Chiropractic Examiners will be under the supervision of the Department of Public Instruction the same as is the Medical Board. Two members of the Chiropractic Board may be Chiropractors who have the degree of Medical Doctor.

All Chiropractic Colleges will be under the supervision of the Department of Public Instruction. The preliminary requirements are exactly the same as those now required of the Medical Doctor and the Osteopath. (Physicians can verify this).

The branches to be taught by the Chiropractic colleges, as set forth in the bill, require about the same number of hours as are required in a medical college. Chiropractic is defined clearly; it is "the adjustment by hand of any or all articulations of the spinal column." No drugs, no instruments, no surgery.

This bill is now in such form that there cannot be any valid objection to it; it was favorably reported out of committee by a large majority, after many hours spent by the sub-committee in discussing it, and making such amendments as would recommend it to public favor. It is now a welfare measure. The public favors this bill. Chiropractic is tolerated, why should it not be regulated? The medical profession, the osteopaths, the optometrists, have each their separate boards, and the Chiropractors have the same right to the same legal recognition. A Chiropractic board will add no expense, because the applicant for examination will pay the same fee under any conditions.

Chiropractors must have a separate board, because a medical man, who is not a chiropractor, is not competent to examine a chiropractor. A medical examination is no measure for a chiropractor any more than a chiropractic examination is a measure for a medical man.

Think it over. Chiropractors have increased 60 per cent. in this State since last session. The opening of correspondence schools are talked of. Favorable public sentiment is increasing. Where will all this end if we do not embrace this opportunity to regulate this condition by voting for this bill?

It has been said, "We hear no crying demand for this new board." "Crying demand." We should not wait for our constituents to come to us and "cry" for a Chiropractic Board, like children crying for Castoria. Let us regulate Chiropractic before the crying starts. Those medical men who object to this bill surely do not understand the valuable amendments made to it.

We who vote for this bill can truthfully explain to our medical friends that, in doing so, we have served them, because it will enable the Chiropractors to eliminate undesirables, and to remove unfair competition from the chiropractors and from our old family doctor as well.

Our chaplain said, in one of his many inspiring prayers, "Always remember that back of all such bodies as this are the people," and he also said, "We are in a measure responsible for doing everything to alleviate pain and suffering." These sentiments have influenced me in my efforts to faithfully serve the public, rather than any group, as sponsor of this bill now before you.

I ask that the same sentiments influence you to vote in favor of this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

SPECIAL ORDER ON THIRD READING (SPECIAL ORDER)

The SPEAKER. The hour of 10.30 having arrived, the special order of business fixed for that hour will be taken up. On page 1 of today's calendar the special order for this Hour is House Bill No. 710.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 710, entitled:

An Act to amend change and consolidate the laws relating to the assessment of persons property and subjects of taxation and the levy and collecting of taxes in counties of the second third fourth fifth and sixth classes and in cities of the third class boroughs towns townships school districts of the second third and fourth classes independent school districts and certain poor districts within said counties permitting cites of the second class to accept the provisions of this act and become subject thereto and repealing existing laws

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question.

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LUDLOW. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill which is before the House tonight for its consideration is not a new bit of proposed legislation in Pennsylvania. In 1919 there was appointed by Governor Sproul, a commission to study the county tax laws through out this State. As the result of the study by that commission, appointed by that governor, there was sumitted to the 1921 Legislature a bill substantially like the one which is before you now. The general public did not know its provisions. The people back home did not know what it was about, and the bill was permitted to stay in Committee. The Commission was continued for two years, and your humble servant was appointed as one of the two additional members of the Commission. The bill is not one of which I am the author. It was drawn as the result of study by Mr. Fertig of the Legislative Reference Bureau. While I cannot claim to be the father of the bill I am very happy to claim the honor of being step-father to it.

This bill has had a great deal of consideration throughout the State, and in very brief words, because I do not want to take a great deal of your time, I want to explain what it endeavors to accomplish. First of all it endeavors to revise the County assessment system, and secondly, to revise the county tax collection system. The assessments throughout your counties and mine,—and I refer to all counties but Philadelphia where the city and county are coterminus—the assessments in all of those counties I say, except in Philadelphia have afforded examples of the greatest inequality. In the same county you will find a borough or township, whose assessment rate is ninety per cent. You will find in the adjoining borough or township or city of the third class that the assessment is at forty per cent of the true value. The result is that the place with the smaller rate of assessment is paying less upon the thousand dollars of its county tax than the place with the larger assessment, and it operates to create a condition of legalized cheating in which the local assessor back home, who keeps his assessments down the lowest, succeeds in having his constitutents pay the smallest tax. Obviously unfair. And it operates unfairly in the same community, because if you have a complaint to make about your tax assessment, and you go up to the county seat, to the board of revision, and you ask that your tax assessments be lowered, because the man's next door has been lower than yours, the first question that they ask you is; "Will you be willing to sell your property at the price, or at the figure to which you ask it now to be reduced?" And your answer is obviously, "No, I cannot do that but nowhere in my township, nowhere in my borough or city is that done." And they say, "So far as we are concerned all we know is that there is supposed to be a full assessment; you can just go home." And the answer is that you just go home.

I will not take more of your time on the assessment feature, except to say that that is the fault, and the remedy is that there shall be a uniform assessment, and the act supplies that kind of system. It is a system of assessment in Allegheny County of a board of seven, the same board they have there now. In other counties outside of Philadelphia it consists of a board of three assessors. Now, I say in other counties; the act as amended does not apply to counties of the seventh and eighth classes. The reason for that is set forth in the report of the Tax Commission, of which our fellow member, Mr. Edmonds is the chairman. The question has been raised whether in counties of very small population, and with the people living very far apart, there can be under this system, until it has been tried elsewhere in the state and demonstrated, a saving, and to meet that condition, voluntarily we have amended it, so that to-day the act if passed would apply not to Philadelphia, and not to the counties of the seventh and eighth classes and in the county of Allegheny and in the county of Lackawanna, it would not apply to the City of Pittsburgh nor would it apply to the city of Scranton, unless the people there elected to take advantage of its provisions. So that we have this curious situation, that in Pennsylvania, represented here tonight by two hundred and eight members, eighty-six members of the House represent districts like Philadelphia, or the seventh and eighth class counties, or Pittsburgh and Scranton, to which the act would not apply if you pass it, and one hundred and twenty-two members only are directly affected by the passage of the bill.

The next thing that followed that, members of the sixth class counties came and said why cannot we be exempt, and the members of the fifth class counties came and said why cannot we be exempt, and so on we come down the list of them, and so we say why not pass the title and amend by striking out the act completely, and that situation would strike to the hearts of many members of the House who have been beseeched on all sides pro and con to vote for this bill.

Now, let me pass for a moment to the collection side of the bill. It is common knowledge to those of you who know the inside workings of the political machine of your district, but not common knowledge to the public at large what outrageous compensation is paid for the collection of our taxes. You may say, "well", those of you who are in Philadelphia, "what difference does that make to us?" I propose to show you briefly first just what these outrageous commissions and fees are. Secondly, what it means to you members from Philadelphia, and the seventh and eighth class counties to which the bill does not otherwise apply, and then I will ask you to consider the bill on the merits as thus shown to you, with a few other comments about political conditions at home, and the influences that say that the bill probably should not pass.

In the first place, in the biennium ending in 1923 and I use the last biennium for figures—the State of Pennsylvania appropriated over $109,000,000 for state purposes. Of that it is fair to estimate,—and we must estimate because there are no positive figures as to corporations and utilities in the city of Philadelphia,—but it is fair to approximate that one-fourth of the revenues of the State of Pennsylvania comes from the County of Philadelphia. In as much as thirty-four and three-tenths per cent of the state revenue for that biennium was spent for school purpose, including largely state aid to the local districts, it becomes vital to those in Philadelphia who contribute one dollar in every four to know whether that money is being wisely spent, and to that end I direct your attentino, speaking solely to the question of school taxes and the cost of collection of school taxes, and the outrage that exists there. First of all if you take away from approximately thirty-four or thirty-five million dollars for the biennium ending in 1923 for state aid schools approximately four million dollars paid or due to the City and County of Philadelphia, you will have left about thirty million dollars. In Allegheny County where I understand there is a very marked opposition to Bill No. 710 becoming a law, it cost in the school year ending May 31, 1924, $267,481 to collect the school taxes. For the same period in Philadelphia it cost $31,680 to collect over $22,000,000. In the City of Pittsburgh it cost $44,-847 to collect $10,475,496. You can work out the ratio for yourselves. The City of Pittsburgh, a school district there of the second class received state aid for the two payments in 1922 and beginning 1923—I took these figures from the Auditor General's report—received $1,260,000, for the same time that it was paying out $267,481 to collect its school taxes. Thirteen per cent of the amount of what the state appropriated to aid that district, and one out of every four dollars of which came from Philadelphia by way of illustration,—went to pay the tax collectors solely for the school taxes. Then in the City of Pittsburgh it cost five per cent to do the same thing, whereas in the City of Philadelphia it only costs one per cent.

Now in order that you may know how also your state funds are going, I would like to call your attention to these sums of money paid solely to collect school taxes. For the year ending May, 1924, in Allentown $13,777. United States Senator Pepper and United States Senator Reed receive $10,000 each per annum for leaving their homes and going down to Washington to represent our state. They must maintain a home in Washington and one back home, but the tax collector in Allentown, only of the school system, needs only to stay home, having his assistants do the work, and he is paid over $13,000 for the job. Our sense of proportion is wrong. We should be concerned in the primaries in 1926, not in who is going to be United States Senator, but who is going to be the local tax collector back home, and believe me it is not in the newspaper, but that is what interests the folks back home most politically. In Altoona there was over $8,000—I am speaking only of the school taxes; in Erie over $14,000; in Reading $16,000; in Scranton $12,000; Wilkes-Barre nearly $14,000, and so on down the line. You will say that is incident to the big cities. Now I am going to give you places that only you folks who represent the district have ever heard about. First, in Dickson City, in Lackawanna County, a place having a population of 11,049, according to the 1920 census, they paid $7,237 just to collect the school taxes. A nice job I say. And the State, you and I from our district, and you from Philadelphia are paying one dollar in four and sending eighteen thousand dollars up to Dickson City so that seven thousand of it may be paid to the local collector. You talk about economy in your schools, you talk about economy in your budget. What is the use of shouting one thing and doing the other. Here is your chance if you want to take it. In Edwardsville Borough, in the adjoining county of Luzerne, with a population of 9,027, with a State aid of $17,000 a year, the tax collector, if I may use a slang expression, draws down $7,421 out of your good hard earned money. Is not obviously that state aid paid really to pay that tax collector seven thousand dollars. In Georges Township, Fayette County, with a population of 10,000, state aid $18,000, he received, just for collecting school taxes, $9,281. Members of the House, you have got the wrong job; politically your friends have the wrong job; you want to forget Capitol Hill, you want to forget ambitions for Washington, and don't want to be concerned with State officers; you want to go back home and be the local tax collector; and, mark you, I am only giving school tax figures, and in most cases you can just about double what the man received for school taxes, and call it quits at that. In Hanover, Luzerne County, it cost $9,741 to collect the school taxes. In the neighboring county of Luzerne, in Newport, it cost $9,886. In Redstone, Fayette, it costs $8,056; in Throop, in Lackawanna County it cost $8,148, which by the way is only forty-seven per cent of amount of state aid for the school district, and in Georges Township, Fayette County it is only fifty per cent that the State helps to pay up there for the tax collected. You really ought to include these in appropriations under the table of charities requiring a two-thirds vote, when you vote for the tax collectors back home. I might go on in that way, but I want to call your attention to this: For the year ending last May, there was collected in Pennsylvania school taxes of over $104,-000,000, at a cost of $1,867,000, that is one and seven-tenths per cent, it is $17 per thousand, but in the State of Ohio for fifty years they have been collecting all the taxes by the same system we are urging here, and out there it only costs $4.06 to collect all kinds of taxes, but you, out of the kindness of your heart, and the philanthrophy, politically, agree that there shall be paid $17 a thousand just for the collection of school taxes. Now, if you multiply that by a fair average of the taxes collected at home of the cost of collection, and speaking outside of Philadelphia again, you will find that if you will put this act into effect, based upon the system in Maryland to the south of us and in Ohio to the west of the State of Pennsylvania, you would save three and a quarter million dollars a year. It is worth while? That is the question that is before you tonight.

Now, I cannot resist in these few minutes left—you will say, "well, we have listened long enough," but you are going to listen for another two years, and you might as well get the figures authentically before you. I want to give you some figures about Luzerne County. I cannot resist the opportunity to let you know what fine, whole-souled philanthropists we have in Luzerne. Of course, I don't refer to the members of the House. In the County of Luzerne for the year 1923, it cost $337,614.79 to collect their taxes. Under the basis which is used in the State of Ohio or the State of Maryland, it ought to cost not more than one sixth of that. "Oh," you may say, "what do we care. We are at Harrisburg on the Hill. We represent our counties back home. We don't care what it costs them in Luzerne County. If they want to spend $337,000 to collect their taxes that is their business." But it is more than their business. You and your predecessors, and I my predecessors, have passed laws which permit those men to fatten at the trough of a public that does not seem to care, and if it does not care, as reflected by your vote, then they will go on and pay $350,000, possibly the next year, and who knows where it will go after that. Now, I have no hard feeling, or bad feeling as to the County of Luzerne, where some of my friends are, and some of our fellow members. I will call your attention that in Lackawanna County,—I want to be absolutely impartial about this,—in Lackawanna County, not speaking of county taxes, not speaking of the four mills tax on money at interest, but just taking up haphazard fifteen boroughs and townships, they only paid, to collect borough and township taxes last year, $106,288. Our heart is open, and our pockets are too, provided it is the money spent from back home and not up here. Now, in Allegheny County, for example, I have given you the figures on just school taxes, merely $270,000 for the year ending last May. If you add all the other costs of collection in the County of Allegheny, and don't be too narrow in your view of what we shall include or exclude, do not try to include every thing, you will find Allegheny approaches pretty close to the three-quarter million dollar mark, city and county. Well, you don't care, except you folks from Allegheny County, and you know what your folks back home want, and it is going to be recorded in your votes, but my responsibility, as the proud step-father, is at an end when I give the youngster a chance to look you in the face, and you do the balance, whether you pat it on the shoulder or spank it, that is your job. I have done my best to send it out.

Now, in the counties of the fourth class, in Delaware County for last year, $120,000, as the cost of collection, without counting the records of two places which were closed to me when I asked for them, and without counting several to which I did not have the time to go, including only school taxes and road taxes in townships of the second class. In the city of Chester, whose Treasurer very courteously gave me the information and two or three other municipal units, $120,000. In Fayette County they say it runs to a quarter of a million dollars; the figures which I have total about $160,000. In my own county of Montgomery it runs close to $150,000. Then I have been asked, why include sixth class counties? Well, if not worth while to save close to $60,000 in Bucks county and close to $60,000 in Lycoming county, then I say, with you, why any counties at all?

Now members of the House, you have been very patient, and I simply want to call your attention to the fact first, that if you permit the present system to stay as it is, you permit a legalized cheating in our county assessments; if you permit the cost of collections to remain as they are, you deliberately put the stamp of your approval upon the present uneconomical and wildly extravagant methods of making collections—not in all cases, let us be fair,—in certain counties where the people are not wildly extravagant and where the assessors and collectors are only fairly paid, they are doing the best they can under the law as it has been passed. I said two years ago, and I repeat here what has been common knowledge among those who know the matter much better than I, that practically all the States in the western part of the country adopted the county unit, and east of the Mississippi they say one-half of them do the same thing. It is nothing new, if you please, unless something that has been working for fifty years successfully in other places is new, then that is new. If it is new because they have had it in Maryland for a long while, then it is new. I wrote to the State Grange in Ohio, and got back an answer that the county system pleases them in every way and they would not think of going back to a system such as they understand we have in Pennsylvania. I wrote also a similar letter to an officer in Maryland and got the same response. I will not go farther except to ask you to bear this in mind: The Board of Assessors does not meet in the county seat alone. It moves from place to place in the county to hear appeals.

One man has called my attention to the fact that in his county, a sixth class county, it costs more, he says, to assess under this bill than under the prevailing system, because by agreement they have adopted a more economical method of assessment. My answer to that is if he will go on here and analyze his costs of collection, he will find that being what is admittedly more expensive and in order to bring about a more effective assessment system, if you will add that to the cost of collection, you will find that there is still a big saving.

Now, members of the House, we have been besieged on all sides by men back home who have jobs. Very well, I say that the working man is worthy of his hire. I have no desire in the bill which has been introduced by that commission which, by the way, is out of existence, with reference to having it continued at the expense of the State, spend money from year to year, when after all it is a matter to be submitted to subsequent Legislatures until we all know what it is about, and until we can produce something better. If members come to me and say your bill is wrong, here is something better, that would be fine. I am in favor of constructive legislation. I have only had three criticisms and all three criticisms have been made practically on one point. Now, the tax collectors do not want to be ousted from their offices, and it is not a shifting of responsibility, and I say to you, as I said to a member from a certain county, if this bill should be passed, and I say this seriously, if this bill should pass and goes to the Senate, I personally should be the first one to request that no present incumbent in the tax collector's job should be ousted from his job. If the system is right, it is right two years from now, it is right three years from now. It is not right to take away his job which he got under normal conditions. I do not intend it shall be a ripper. I will try to be as fair as people will be fair with me. I have had, from time to time, since this bill has been before us, men from different parts of the State come to me and say: "Ludlow, we believe your bill is right, but cannot vote for it. Why? The pressure from home, the pressure from fellows who hold the jobs is terrific. They are the men who elect us; they are the men who do this and that." We come, members of the House, to the crossroads, and here is a sign pointing off that way, saying, "To the taxpayer and economy," and the other this way, as it points to the tax collectors and the old system of extravagence. You have come to the crossroads. Which way are you going to turn? I cannot make you turn; that is your job; you are the members, you must do the thing, do this or do that, and give your reasons. I cannot challenge your reasons. That is why you are here. This is a representative government, and as the vote goes, so shall we of necessity be satisfied for the time being. This I ask you to think about, this I ask you to bear in mind, is it better to be obligated to a group back home which you perpetuate, or is it better to take this proposition right by the throat and shake it and say, "That is the end of it." And if you end it, there is not going to be anybody back home for you to worry about unless you engage to sit up at the wake. That is your job. Now members of the House, in no spirit of levity, but in all of the seriousness that I can command, I know how some members here have been asked to vote one way and another. That is not my job, that is yours. I have spoken quite long enough, and I am obliged to you for your attention. The bill has been before the House, under consideration and under fire, if you please, for practically two months. As the vote goes of course the bill goes. I am obliged to you for your consideration.

MR. HAWS IN THE CHAIR.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Ludlow.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Ludlow, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LUDLOW. Mr. Speaker, I will, gladly.

Mr. MARCUS. I ask the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Ludlow, to state his figures in the proportion that the taxes of Allegheny county are collected and what the percentage is?

Mr. LUDLOW. Mr. Speaker, I should be glad to give the gentleman from Allegheny figures. He probably has other figures, and if it is not playing Yankee, I ask him to submit his figures to the House. The figures I use are those taken from the Department of Public Instruction. I am speaking now solely of the educational figures, and they amount to $267,481 for the year ending May 31, 1924, and are made up by adding the cost of collection in Pittsburgh and one district of the second class, and the costs of collection in several school districts of the third class in that county, together with the total of all school taxes in fourth class districts of that county, making a grand total of $267,481.

Mr. MARCUS. And those figures are based upon what information?

Mr. LUDLOW. On official records furnished me by the Department of Public Instruction. I have not changed any figures. Those are official as far as I could get them at Harrisburg.

Mr. MARCUS. I would like to further interrogate the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Ludlow, and ask him whether this system has been successful in Ohio?

Mr. LUDLOW. Mr. Speaker, I have here at my desk letters from seven different counties in the State of Ohio, some containing the large cities and some containing the rural districts, in which they say that while they have the same trouble that everybody does with the collection of taxes when they don't get the results they want, that in no case would any of them go back to the system of divided collection and assessment such as we have in Pennsylvania.

Mr. MARCUS. That is all. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have read this famous Ludlow bill, and through it all I see nothing but theory and centralization of power. I see figures and estimates based on theory, nothing definite or concrete. I wish to call the attention of the members of the House particularly to Allegheny county and my statement is very brief. Regarding the receiving of taxes by the county treasurer in Allegheny county as per the comptroller's report of Allegheny county, the cost of receiving county taxes during the discount period and at face for the year 1924 was one and one-half per cent; the city of McKeesport under their system collects their tax at a cost of one-half per cent during the discount period and at face. The borough of Wilkinsburg collects at one per cent; the city of Erie at eight-tenths per cent; Harrisburg, one-half per cent; Williamsport, one per cent; York, one and one-half per cent; Huntingdon, two per cent; Homestead Borough, one and one-half per cent; Lower Merion Township, one and one-half per cent and Meadville one per cent, and these figures are given to us by a bulletin issued by the League of Women Voters, and if the League of Women Voters are sponsoring this bill and gathering their data, then I am at liberty to say that by information is correct and that the percentage is less than two per cent and that the system, as far as Allegheny county is concerned, has been successful.

The Board of Assessment and Revision of Taxes has been successful. I further desire to tell the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Ludlow, that we have no men assessors there who are begging for jobs, and every member of the Allegheny county delegation, every member will vote on this, not as a matter of public charity. We are not giving anybody a place unless they render 100% service. We are not running a charitable institution in the city of Pittsburgh or in the county of Allegheny. We, in Allegheny county, object to the bill by reason of the fact that if you follow very carefully the provisions of the bill, that cities of the second class have a right to choose, it is optional with them whether or not they want the Ludlow bill. It is up to the city council to pass an ordinance, and if the mayor ratifies it, then we come under the Ludlow bill. I wonder if the gentleman from Montgomery could explain if council would pass this ordinance and the mayor would ratify it, what part of it, would he collect, the public education part of it, despite the fact that they levy taxes for school, yet by ordinance of council and ratified by the mayor, they have no office in the county for the collection of taxes. They are not consulted at all. By one blow rips out the city assessor's, rips out the Board of Assessment and Revision of Taxes and makes their offices elective. The only thing I see in the bill is rip, rip, rip. It is nothing but a ripper and based on something that may be a theory.

The gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Ludlow says, in answer to my interrogation in reference to the State of Ohio,—being very evasive,—he says, "It may not be exactly what we want, but we will not go back to the old system;"

and yet, in a newspaper called The Clyde Enterprise, published in Clyde, Ohio, March 12, 1925, there appears the following:

"SCHOOL FUNDS ARE LOW.

"There have been rumors to the effect that only eight months school will be held in Clyde this year, owing to a deficit in school funds. Nothing definite is yet decided about the matter, however, nor will it be until the board of education makes its settlement with the county and learns just how much money it will have for the schools."

That does not seem to be a howling success, and there is no reason why any county in the State of Pennsylvania should have this particular constructive piece of legislation as the gentleman from Montgomery calls it. Why has not the board that has been called for the purpose of revising our school taxes, our entire taxation problems in Pennsylvania, why have they not given us something in this House to act upon? The problems are so large, so unusual in their nature, that we have not come to a definite program in the revision of our board, yet this bill, by one blow, rips boards, not that there is criticism of the boards, but those who are interested in theory and are following this as it comes to final passage. I wonder if someone can explain to me that in Allegheny county, where we have probably 400,000 property assessments and possibly a half a million personal assessments, and this bill providing that fifty assessors shall do the work, I wonder if someone can explain how that would work out? But I am in accord with the gentleman from Montgomery not to consume too much time of this House. I belive this is legislation that destroys and not legislation that will help a condition for betterment, and under the circumstances, let the boards keep on functioning, and that is going to provide us with a system possibly that will be concrete and constructive, and at the present time, let us vote this bill down.

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House. The assessing of property by a centralized assessing board rather than by a number of local assessors has worked out well in the City of Williamsport, which is a city of the third class in the district which my collegue and I represent. Likewise the collection of taxes by one person rather than by a separate tax collector for each ward has also worked out well in this same city. The County Commissioners of Lycoming County have for more than a year past designated the County Treasurer as the person to whom all the County Taxes should be paid, thus doing away with the necessity of a county tax collector for each of the sixteen wards of the City of Williamsport. Centralized assessing and centralized collection of taxes in the City of Williamsport has passed the experimental stage and is both economical and successful.

But the County of Lycoming besides the City of Williamsport contains forty-two townships and nine boroughs, and when I analyze the provisions of the Ludlow Act, with a view to applying them to Lycoming County, outside of the City of Williamsport, I find two objections, relating especially to the proposed changes in assessment.

In the first place the proposed assessment would cost the County of Lycoming far more than the present method. The cost to the County of Lycoming for the assessing of property by local assessors during the year 1924 was $11,992.60. In other words, the total cost of the assessing of property in the County of Lycoming including the registration of voters in the nine boroughs and forty-two townships, which registration was made by the assessors, cost the County of Lycoming a little less than $12,000.00 for the year 1924.

Now under the provisions of the Ludlow Act in the County of Lycoming, which is a County of the sixth class, the Board of County Assessors shall be composed of three members, each with a salary of $2,000.00, making the total annual salary for the three assessors $6,000.00.

Moreover the board of County Assessors may employ in Counties of the sixth class five subordinate assessors full time and the salary of each subordinate assessor employed full time is fixed at $1500.00 per annum, so that the total salary of the five subordinate assessors would be $7500.00. So that you have to start with a salary roll of $13,500 for the Board of assessors and the Board of Assistant Assessors who function full time.

Moreover further provision is made on Page 14, line 7, that in Counties of the sixth class one subordinate assessor may be appointed for each 5000 inhabitants, but not more than fifteen. Now with the population of Lycoming County at approximately 85,000 dividing that number by 5000 would be seventeen, but the number being limited to fifteen, after deducting the five subordinate assessors they will employ full time, the Board of Assessors would still be entitled to employ ten subordinate assessors at $5.00 per day. Assuming that these ten subordinate assessors would be employed only 100 days during the year, each would receive a salary of $500.00, making a total for the ten $5,000; so that adding the salary of the Assessing Board of $6,000.00 to the five subordinate assessors full time of $7,500. and ten part time assessors at $5,000.00 would make a total in salaries alone of $18,500.00 per annum. And then, besides that, we have a provision in this Act that provides for a board of clerks. On page 12, section 208: "The Board of County Assessors may appoint a chief clerk and such additional clerks as the county commissioners may deem necessary. The chief clerk and additional clerks shall receive such salaries as may be fixed by the county commissioners or the salary board of the counties in counties where such board exists, which salaries shall be paid by the county from the county treasurer," and so on. So that it is reasonably sure that you would have an overhead of salaries alone from the Board of Assessors and the subordinate assessors of $18,500.00 as against a little less than $12,000.00 at the present time, which includes the cost of assessing all property in the county of Lycoming outside the city of Williamsport and including the registering of all the voters in all the townships and all the boroughs of the county of Lycoming. During the past few weeks I have received no less than fifty letters, nearly all worded alike, in which they say, "In the interests of economy, vote for the Ludlow Bill." I took some pains in answering a few of these letters. Briefly stated, I asked these persons, men of intelligence in the community, "First, will you kindly inform me whether you have studied the Ludlow Bill? If so, will you give me your thought with reference to the cost of assessing in Lycoming county under the provisions of the Ludlow Bill as compared with the present cost of assessing in Lycoming county? In the third place, will you give me some thought as to whether you consider centralization of collection in Lycoming county practical, in view of the fact that many of the townships are from thirty to fifty miles away from the county seat?" Out of all the letters I sent out to these fifty men and women, I received not a single reply.

Now, some statement has been made here with reference to the fact that we are besieged back home by the men that have jobs and something has been said in the newspapers about that invisible something known as the tax collectors' lobby. I want to say here, in all fairness, that so far as Lycoming county is concerned, the tax collector lobby is a myth. I have received, as I have already said, these fifty letters almost alike, in the interests of the county for the Ludlow Bill. Just this morning I received a bunch of telegrams almost identical. You can draw your conclusion where the lobby is. On the other hand, so far as the tax collectors are concerned, I received two solitary letters, one from a collector in the borough of Montoursville and one from down in the southern end of the county from some man I never heard of before. Now, that is the extent of the tax collectors' lobby in Lycoming county. There is another point to which I want to call your attention with reference to this bill, and that is this: At the present time, as I have already indicated, the assessors are registry assessors as well as assessors of property, and they as registry assessors are to register the voters in the various townships and boroughs of Lycoming county, receiving for their registry of these voters only the regular salary that they get as assessors. Now, no provision, no adequate provision to my mind, has been made to take care of registrations of voters. We have provided here in the Ludlow Act for a central assessing board. On page 11, I find something approaching the idea of taking care of the registering of voters in this negative statement: "Nothing contained in this section shall be construed as abolishing the office of assessor insofar as the same relates to the performance of duties connected with elections." Now, what does that mean? To my mind, that means this: That we must still keep up all these assessors in the local districts for the purpose of simply registering the voters. So that in addition to the expense, as I have already indicated to you, a matter of $18,500 in salaries as against $12,000 of costs for registering voters and doing all the assessing everywhere in the county of Lycoming we would still have the expense of maintaining these registry assessors, and they would have to be paid. The provisions of the Ludlow Act are not clear how they would be paid, but they still would have to function and, of course, some provision would have to be made, if not in this act, then in some subsequent legislation to take care of the work of those registry assessors.

Now, there is another point I want to call your attention to. It is briefly this: That at the present time, if the local assessors do not assess properly and if they assess inequitably, as our friend, Mr. Ludlow would state that they do, then we have the machinery of the law that will correct that. The Board of County Commissioners, under the law, are the Board of Revision and Appeal. It is the duty of the county commissioners under existing law, dating away back to 1846: "The Board of Revision in each county shall receive the returns of the assessors, proceed to examine and inquire whether the same have been made in conformity with the laws of this Commonwealth and whether the property to be valued for taxation for State and county purposes has been valued at a sum or price not less than the same would bring after full public notice at public sale; supposing each separate lot or piece or tract of land, with the improvements of the personal property of each individual, company or corporation were to be sold."

That is further amended back in 1909: "Provided that in every case where said county commissioners shall raise the price or valuation of any property which they belive has been valued or reduced by the assessors too low"—now mark you, they have the right under the law to assess upwards if these inequities in assessment are made in places where they are too low, the county commissioners may reduce them or may assess them upward—"and notice of such increased valuation shall be given to the owner or owners and in such notice fixing the date when an appeal for such cases will be held at the office of the county commissioners."

So then, Ladies and gentlemen, without tiring you I want to say that in the interests of economy, for the reasons that I have stated, and for the reasons, or further reason, that the county commissioners now can iron out all these inequalities in assessments, if they see fit, the machinery is there, adequate provision has been made in the law,—for these reasons I will vote "no" on this bill.

Mr. PEELOR. Mr. Speaker and fellow members of the House, I represent one of these sixth class counties and I am deeply interested in this particular piece of legislation. I have listened to the figures that have been given for the purpose of proving their proposition. I have listened to the description of its application where it has been in local or otherwise practice in some sections of the state, but I want to call your attention, before I advance my theory, to page 41 of this bill where it says "in cases whereby the refusal or failure of any taxable person, co-partnership, unincorporated association, joint stock association, to make return," there is a penalty. Why isn't there a penalty placed on the corporation? The word "corporation" is used everywhere in the act until it comes to applying a penalty for neglect or refusal, and then the word "corporation" is dropped out of it. Another question I want to call to your attention is on page 62 where it comes to liens, it says that the "tax shall be a first lien upon such property from the time they become due," and then your act of assembly says that the first half of your payment becomes due on the first of March and my recollection is that the second payment is on the first of August. In our county sheriff's sales for the sale of real estate are held on the last Friday preceding our March term, which is generally the latter part of February. In the case that the sales were made, the proceeds derived from the sale—no part of it could be paid as taxes for the simple reason that they are not a lien at the time of the sale. If the sale were made in May before our June term, then one-half of the tax on that real estate could be paid and taken out of the purchase money received from it, and the other half out of the property probably in the hands of the owner by whom it would be taken over, and mark you the real estate would pass over and if it became a subject to bear the burden of a lien of this tax, it would be in the hands of a subsequent purchaser at sheriff's sale and you could not apply penalties that might be imposed on the original owner who held the property at the time of taxation. To those two matters I want to call your attention. There are other things of importance, but the one thing that I want to call the attention of every member of this Pennsylvania legislature to tonight is the fact of the centralization of power. I want you tonight to realize that we are rapidly losing in sections of our country today, in our townships and in our local communities the power that was delegated to us by our national constitution and better preserved to us by our state constitution, and the dangers that might arise at this particular hour and seek to destroy that centralization, that we may create an enthusiasm on the part of the voter, that we may have the voters of the state of Pennsylvania to realize what is necessary for us to do in any community where there is as much crime as they have alleged there is here, that we insist on endeavoring to centralize and take away that power, is to stimulate the citizens of that community to correct that evil. There has not been a single evil mentioned tonight by the proponent of this bill that could not be corrected in the community where it occurs, and I trust that the intelligent, common sense people of this state of ours, and particularly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, that they come to a conscienceness of this one thing that you can correct an error better where the facts are well known than you can by transferring it somewhere else and by leading the facts up to it. I regret very much that we have given, in several instances, power, and taken away from the local community that which they best understood, and leave it for some person else to correct. A few months ago I was employed by a client in the northern end of the county who had a sheep killed, and it became necessary to send out from the department at Harrisburg some one to pass judgment on the remains, a sort of coroner, and it seems that his action met with the disapproval, and a second one was sent and we succeeded in getting the thing adjusted by paying something like $28.50 to see that lone sheep decently interred. I have not passed the cemetery since its interment, and I cannot say that the seal of the commonwealth is placed upon its monument, but I know that the sanction of the commonwealth was given to the interment. I could have taken that carcass and placed it where I think it would have reposed until its final call for fifty cents, and saved the $28.00. Now what I want to call the attention of the House to is the fact that we are letting that power out of our grasp, and placing it where we cannot control it. I regret very much to say that where our social element has entered, our political life is very rapidly getting away from us, that we are having these matters of inventions, such as the telephone and the automobile, that are revolutionizing our society and changing the trend of our civilization, but the trouble with us lies in this that we are allowing them to become our masters instead of our servants, and the thing we want to do is to utilize them for the better interests of the local community in which we reside. It is a strange thing to me to think that 49,999 people will stand in the light of the administration of justice in the state of Pennsylvania in a different position from 50,001, and to discriminate in that particular, to my mind is the essence of absurdity. I trust that they do not take away from us that which is so vital to the very existence of our national life. It was upon that they predicated our national life, it was on the town council of New England that they laid the foundation of our national government, and I can see no reason from that hour to this to do away with that particular unit upon which we organized our national government, and I trust and hope that America in the near future may make a picture that will hang on the wall for the entertainment of the child, and that that picture will be where the aged father of more than three score years and ten administered the oath of our national constitution to that son of his as brought up under the local influence of the township of New England, and now so wisely and justly administering the welfare of this Republic, this great nation that is the leading light in the civilization of all times.

Mr. LUCAS. Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The SPEAKER. The hour of 11:00 o'clock P. M., having arrived the House will proceed to the special order of business set for that time.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1144, as follows:

An Act to provide for the selection of jurors to serve in the several courts criminal and civil of counties of the second class and defining the qualifications of such jurors providing for the organization of a commission for the selection of jurors in such counties and prescribing its powers and duties and authorizing it to investigate as to the qualifications of prospective jurors imposing the expense of maintaining and operating said commission upon said counties and requiring the county commissioners to provide suitable quarters equipment and supplies authorizing the employment of the necessary clerks and other employees and providing for a salary board composed of the commission the county commissioners and the controller of said counties to fix the number and compensation of such employees requiring county officers and boards to furnish information to said commission concerning taxables resident in said county as to their eligibility for jury service repealing inconsistent legislation and prescribing punishment for the violation hereof

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That for an improved and impartial selection of persons to serve as jurors in the several courts civil and criminal of counties of the second class there is hereby created a commission to be known as the "Commission for the Selection of Jurors" hereinafter called "Commission" Said commission shall consist of three members One of said members shall be the president judge of the court of common pleas of the respective county whose duty shall be to preside at and oversee the drawing of jurors as hereinafter provided The other two members of said commission shall be chosen by the qualified electors of the said county at the municipal elections at which other county officers are chosen Provided however That in no event shall both of said elective members of the commission be members of the same political party but the majority political party in said county shall elect one of said elective commissioners and the other shall be the candidate for such office receiving the highest number of votes of the next ranking or minority political party the elective members of the commission to be chosen for a term of four years

Section 2 Vacancies upon said commission occurring from any cause shall be filled by the president judge of the court of common pleas who shall appoint a member or members to fill such vacancy in the elective membership to serve until the next ensuing municipal election

Section 3 The president judge of the court of common pleas and present jury commissioners of the respective counties shall constitute the commission until the next ensuing municipal election

Section 4 The county commissioners of the respective county upon requisition of said commission shall provide suitable office quarters for the commission and shall furnish and equip the same

Section 5 All expenses incurred in the maintenance and operation of said commision and the salaries of its employees shall be payable out of the county funds of the respective county upon payrolls approved by the commission All salaries shall be payable monthly or semimonthly and shall be fixed by the commission acting in conjunction with the county commissioners and the county controller of the respective county acting as a salary board and said salary board is hereby authorized to fix the number of employees and their salaries

Section 6 On or prior to the first day of November one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five the commission shall procure from the county commissioners of the respective county or such other county officer or officers having the information the names of all persons assessed for the purpose of taxation arranged alphabetically and each year thereafter on or before September first a similar list of such taxables as have been added to or removed from the last preceding list shall be obtained and for the purpose of obtaining such list the commission or its properly authorized employees may inspect any assessment list or book or list of taxables in any of the offices of the respective counties and may demand and receive an alphabetically arranged list of the names appearing in any such assessment list or book or list of taxables in any of the offices of the respective counties and in addition to said names the list shall contain the occupation and residence address of each of such taxables

Section 7 After obtaining the said list of taxables the said commission shall meet forthwith and two members shall constitute a majoriy for such meeting providing one of the members is the president judge of the court of common pleas belonging upon said commission and shall select from the said list of taxables every fiftieth name beginning with the first name on said list then the fifty-first name and so continuing until the whole of said list of taxables has been passed through and then shall proceed in a similar manner by selecting the second name on said list and then the fifty-second name and so continue until the list has been passed through if necessary to procure the number of jurors designated to serve for the ensuing year as hereinafter provided and said procedure shall be followed until a sufficient number has been procured from said list of taxables to supply with jurors the several courts civil and criminal of the respective county holding jury trials In each succeeding year after the first year the same procedure in the selection of names from the list of taxables shall be followed beginning however with the fiftieth name after the last name drawn in the year last preceding Provided however That if less than fifty names remain on the said list of taxables after the last name selected in the preceeding year then the selection shall continue by beginnig at the head of the list as hereinbefore provided. No person shall be selected to serve as a juror if two members of said commission shall find that such person is disqualified for service under the provisions of this act

Section 8 The number of names to be selected as in the last paragraph preceding provided shall be designated by the president judge of the court of common pleas of the respective county who shall on or prior to the fifteenth day of November one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five and on or prior to the fifteenth day of August in each year thereafter designate the number of jurors that will be required in the several courts of the respective county holding jury trials for the next ensuing calendar year and the number of names selected from the said list of taxables for that purpose and to be selected as in the last preceding paragraph indicated shall be twice the number of jurors to be required as designated by the president judge of the court of common pleas

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, this is the first time since I have been a member of this body, and I have been a member of the Legislature since 1919, that it has been my happy experience to be able to ask you to support a bill that has the united support of Allegheny County. No doubt, there is need for a change in the jury system of Allegheny County because the system under which we are now operating was enacted many years ago. Conditions have changed and the purpose of this act is to give Allegheny County a system which will make for the future progress of Allegheny County and, at the same time, will not be an effort to destroy the representative form of government by cutting away from our elective system, and, in a degrss, continue under the old act of 1834. This movement for jury reform in Allegheny County started in 1923, and the bill was defeated by reason of the fact that the terms were too drastic, and it was subsequently followed by an act this session which was introduced by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. McKim, and amendments were made to his bill. I want to say in all fairness to Mr. McKim that he has co-operated with me, and yielded his personal ambitions to sponsor a bill which he first introduced in this House, and has furthered the adoption of my bill. I have with me here a letter coming from William B McFall, Jr., repressting, as I understand, the bar association of Allegheny County, in which letter, which is addressed to me he says, "The jury bill which you have sponsored is very meritorious. It will result in greatly increased public confidence in the administration of justice in Allegheny County. The bill contains the essential changes which are desired by the bar association, in that it provides for summoning a cross section of the taxables of the county for service as jurors under reasonable conditions. We hope it will speedily pass. Very truly yours, Wm. B. McFall, Jr., Chairman, Committee Re Jury Bill." This bill continues in force the present jury commissioners, but it increases their salaries from $1200 a year to $4000 a year, therefore making it attractive to men and making it an incentive to occupy a position of this kind. It also provides circumstances where jurors may serve under conditions most favorable to them. I believe and hope it is a step forward, and that it is a bill which is deserving of your consideration. Before asking you to support this bill, I desire to express my regard and esteem for the gentleman from Allegheny Mr. McKim, for his co-operation in making this bill possible, and giving to it the full suport which he has, and I believe he will ask you to vote for it.

Mr. McKIM. Mr. Speaker, I will take a few minutes of your time and state my position on this bill. This is a bill, as has been explained, which affects only Allegheny County, and I do not want any member of the House to feel that because we are asking for these changes that Allegheny County is being held up to ridicule. The fact of the matter is, the jury system in Allegheny County, which originated in 1834, has outlived its usefulness. In 1834, when the jury system as we have it now was placed upon the statute books, we were drawing jurors to the number of about one hundred for the year. At the present time, we are now drawing more than twelve thousand, and it is because of this fact and because of the fact that the old system is not workable and because of the fact that we want a change, that this agitation to have a new jury system in Allegheny County has been brought about. The bar association of that county has been working along these lines for some four years. They feel it is necessary to change the jury system in order that the ends of justice might be served. The bill that is now before you, as the sponsor has stated, is recommended by the bar association, and while it is true that I have introduced a bill, I am satisfied that the purposes for which the bar association is working, the cleansing of the jury system in Allegheny County, will be worked out and the much needed help will be gained through this bill. I would ask the members of the House to vote in favor of this bill and give us a chance in the jury system. As I said before, Allegheny County is not being held up as a horrible example, but we are willing to be pioneers in this matter of changing the jury system to meet the present day conditions, and I would suggest that every member of the House vote "aye" on this measure.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. PARKINSON. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to call up out of order House Bill No. 525, on page 42 of today's calendar.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the calling up of this bill out of order? Is there any objection?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I haven't objected to any of these bills being called up out of order, but there are so many being called up that it seems to me that we should call a halt to it. We must remember that all of these bills take precedence over the rest of the bills on third reading and as we now have a final passage list bills called up out of order on third reading will be put ahead, and it is hardly fair that some of us sit here and permit these other bills to be put in ahead of us. Therefore, I will have to object from now on to any bill being called up out of order.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

APPROVAL OF HOUSE BILLS NOS. 140, 782 and 1041.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 6th, 1925.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Ladies and Gentlemen: I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed the following:

House Bill No. 140, entitled, "An Act to amend the twelfth clause of section three hundred and eighty-one chapter seven of an act approved the fourteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred forty) entitled 'An act concerning townships and revising amending and consolidating the law relating thereto.'"

House Bill No. 782, entitled, "An Act to amend sections four and six of the act approved the seventeenth day of March one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws thirty-two) entitled 'An act authorizing the erection and construction by counties of memorial halls in memory of the soldiers sailors and marines of such counties providing for an election to determine whether such hall shall be erected providing for the purchase and condemnation of property for such purposes regulating the use of such halls and providing for the maintenance and care of the same by a board of control at the expense of the county.'"

House Bill No. 1041, entitled, "An Act providing constables' fees for service of writs in juvenile cases."

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

PARTIAL VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 393.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 6th, 1925.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Ladies and Gentlemen: I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed House Bill No. 393, entitled, "A Supplement to an act entitled 'An act to provide for the ordinary expenses of the Executive Judicial and Legislative Departments of the Commonwealth interest on the public debt and the support of the public schools for the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three and for the payment of bills incurred and remaining unpaid at the close of the fiscal year ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three' as approved the thirtieth day of June Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three Appropriation Acts thirty-five providing for deficiencies in certain appropriations made to the Executive and Judicial Departments by the act to which this is a supplement and for other minor expenses incurred or to be incurred to May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five by certain of the Executive and Judicial Departments not provided for by said act," except as to the following items:

DEPARTMENT OF ADJUTANT GENERAL.

The items which provide as follows:

"For the payment of annual allowance to National Guard organizations passenger and freight transportation rifle practice allowances repairs to auto trucks expenses of inspectors and other paid obligations for the fiscal year ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five the sum of seventy-five thousand two hundred ninety-six dollars ($75,296).

"For officers' annual allowance claims due and filed eleven thousand one hundred eleven dollars and sixty-seven cents ($11,111.67).

"For deficiencies in the payment of clerical services in connection with the preparation and compiling of the records of the soldiers of Pennsylvania who participated in the World War the sum of one thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars ($1,750)."

Four semi-annual payments on annual allowances to National Guard organizations have already been paid in this biennium. These amounts are due on May 31st, billed in June and have heretofore been paid in June. If the Legislature desires to have five semi-annual installments made in the next biennium the Budget allotment for the Militia should be increased by $79,000.00. No deficiencies exist for the second and third items. I therefore withhold my approval from these items.

DEPARTMENT OF MINES.

The items which provide as follows:

"For the payment of expenses incurred by anthracite mine inspectors in the discharge of their duties during the two fiscal years ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three the sum of three thousand and four dollars and ninety-six cents ($3,004.96).

"For the payment of expenses incurred by bituminous mine inspectors in the discharge of their duties during the two fiscal years ending May thirtyfirst one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three the sum of five thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine dollars and twenty-nine cents ($5.879.29)".

There are no "expenses" due anthracite or bituminous mine inspectors as given in these two itms, for the biennial period 1921-1923. I withhold my approval from these items because of the error in the purpose, as they could not be paid anyhow.

MISCELLANEOUS

The item for the payment of expenses and salaries in connection with the William Penn Charter is approved in order to prevent delay in the payment of those bills, although attention is called to the fact that this is an appropriation for an entirely new purpose and in no sense a deficiency.

DEPARTMENT OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS.

While the deficiency item of $2,000. for the Department of Internal Affairs was not called to the attention of the Budget Officer and the Budget submitted by that Department said there would be no deficiency, the item is approved because a sum appropriated to this department for the payment of statutory salary in approximately this amount will lapse.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

On the question,

Shall that portion of the bill vetoed by the Governor become a law, the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

VETO LAID UPON THE TABLE.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I move that, that part of the bill vetoed by the Governor together with the veto be laid upon the table.

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary of the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

APPROVAL OF RESOLUTION RECALLING HOUSE BILL No. 775 FROM THE GOVERNOR.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Affice, Harrisburg, April 3rd, 1925.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Ladies and Gentlemen: I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed a resolution of the House and Senate recalling House Bill No. 775 from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Accordingly the original bill is herewith returned.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. HAAS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 775 passed finally be reconsidered.

Mr. WELTY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. HAAS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

Mr. WELTY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. HAAS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend bill, sec. 5, page 8, by striking out all of lines 15 to 20 inclusive, and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "may provide in such ordinance for the imposition of fines for the violation of any of the provisions of such ordinance and for imprisonment in cases of default in the payment of such fine and costs. The said Legislative body is also empowered to provide civil penalties for such violations."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, that the bill as amended lie over for printing. amended?

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 292.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 6th, 1925.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Ladies and Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 292, entitled, "A Supplement to an act approved the twenty-third day of June one thousaand nine thundred eleven (Pamphlet Laws eleven hundred and twenty-three), entitled, 'An act establishing in each county a board of viewers prescribing their duties, providing for their appointment as viewers, road juries of view and commissioners to view land, and providing for the charges upon the respective counties in the matter of salaries, costs and expenses thereof,' as the same was amended and supplemented by subsequent acts, by providing for the compensation to be paid to the members of the board of viewers in counties of the fourth class."

This Bill increases the mileage allowance and pay of members of the board of viewers in counties of the fourth class, the former from five to ten cents per mile, and the latter from $7.50 to $10.00 per day.

Under the law as it now stands the remuneration of the members of the board of viewers is as follows:

In first-class counties	$5,000
In second-class counties	6,500

and in all other counties an allowance of five cents per mile for traveling expenses and $7.50 per day for each day actually and necessarily spent in the performance of the duties of such office.

I see no reason why the mileage allowance and the per diem pay should be greater in fourth-class counties than those of the third, fifth and succeeding classes.

For these reasons the Bill is not approved

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law, the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

VETO LAID UPON THE TABLE.

Mr. EDE. Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill, together with the veto, be laid upon the table.

Mr. HENRY A. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

SPEAKER BLUETT IN THE CHAIR.

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section six hundred and forty of the act approved the forteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred forty) entitled "An act concerning townships and revising amending and consolidating the law relating thereto" is hereby amended to read as follows

(a) Laying Out Roads Under the General Road Law

Section 640 Except as otherwise in this act provided or except as otherwise provided by local or special legislation all roads wholly within or partly within townships of the second class and all roads partly within townships of the first class shall be laid out widened changed or vacated by the courts of quarter sessions as heretofore in the manner provided by the general road law and the amendments additions and supplements thereto Provided however That no public road shall be opened or vacated until the plan and specifications showing such location or vacation and the width of any proposed highway has been approved by the board of township supervisors or commissions of the township or townships in which such road is proposed to be located or vacated and provided further That all new roads shall be graded to the grade established by the supervisors or commissioners at the expense of the persons who petitioned for the road Provided however That the approval of the township supervisors or commissioners shall not be considered to include roads to be improved under the jurisdiction of the Department of Highways All damages and benefits occasioned by such laying out and the subsequent opening thereof or by any such widening changing or vacation shall be assessed collected and paid in the manner provided by the general road law and the amendments additions and supplements thereto

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I have no personal interest in the bill under consideration, but would like to call the attention of the Senators to some matters that may not have been observed. As I understand the bill, it changes the opening of public roads in townships a very great deal. In the first place, as the bill is drawn with the amendment, it provides that the supervisors of the townships shall fix the width and approve the plan and specifications of the road. Under the law as it now exists the Courts do that, so that it practically takes that matter,—the question of the width of the roads, from the Courts, and places it in the hands of the supervisors.

In the second place the bill provides that petitioners shall be responsible for the damages for the grading of any road, under the provisions of the act. This provision, to my mind, will effect and prohibit practically the opening of roads in any township in the State, because the petitioners are not going to incur the responsibility or liability to pay for the grading of the streets or the roads opened under the provisions of the act.

I do not know what the purpose of the bill is, but I feel satisfied this will entirely change the road law in the manner in which I have indicated, and I think it ought not to pass in its present form.

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, I will not enter into a discussion of the bill at this time, although I think the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Kunkle, is very much mistaken about the bill in the construction he has placed upon it.

This bill was introduced at the solicitation of the supervisors and commissioners Association of Delaware county after a meeting with the representatives of the Highway Department of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The bill as amended meets with the approval of the Highway Department. There is no provision that the persons who shall pay damages are the Commissioners, because the clause is,

"All damages and benefits occasioned by such laying out and the subsequent opening thereof or by any such widening changing or vacation shall be assessed collected and paid in the manner provided by the general road law and the amendments additions and supplements thereto"

but I do not find the amended bill. The bill was amended last evening and is not on my desk; and, under the circumstances, rather than proceed to vote on the bill, we ought to have the bill before us.

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, I move that the question together with further consideration of the bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE.

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Represenatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 1024, as follows:

An Act prohibiting the investment of funds of building and loan associations in syndicated or equal lien loans where the same are divided between or among building and loan associations individuals or corporations

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That it shall be unlawful for any building and loan association heretofore or hereafter incorporated under the laws of this Commonwealth to invest the funds of such association in any syndicated or equal lien loan or loans where the same are divided between or among several building and loan associations individuals or corporations

Section 2 Any officer or director of any building and loan association violating any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or undergo imprisonment not exceeding six months or both at the discretion of the court

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, probably the other Senators know a great deal more about Building and Loan Associations than I do. This bill was brought about by the fact that of the 3000 Building and Loan Associations in Philadelphia there are certain real estate operators who have concentrated these Building and Loan Associations in their offices and have embarked on enterprises which were never contemplated for the capital for which is Building and Loan Associations of Pennsylvania. I have been told that one operator has four thousand dollars coming in to his office every month for that purpose. That may be all right, but the Building and Loan Associaions are a matter of pride in Pennsylvania. The movement started here, and has financed the poor man into his home.

This is a very wide department. The Building and Loan Associations have received every consideration at the hands of the Assembly of Pennsylvania. They pay no taxes; the only fee is for the examination of their books by the banking commissioner. It, therefore, seems to me, a question, if there is a slump in real estate, what will become of some of these Building and Loan Associations? They are bound to go to the wall.

I am not sufficiently conversant with the question to know whether the directors or the stockholders in these Building and Loan Associations, which are gathered together for the purpose of financing large corporations,—whether the stockholders know anything about it or not. I suppose that legally the directors know about it, but I venture the guess that many of the stockholders do not.

This bill I think, is in the interest of the innocent stockholders in Building and Loan Associations, and to preserve the integrity and ideal for which they were organized in the State of Pennsylvania.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

Items of moneys or property escheatable under the provisions of this act which were not reported to the Auditor General in the annual report of the person copartnership association [bank national bank] or other corporation holding such moneys or property but which were afterwards returned to the Auditor General in special reports to that officer or which were not reported to him but were ascertained by his agents may be advertiesd in the foregoing manner for the same period at any time and notice by mail to the several depositors beneficiaries or creditors shall be given in such cases as soon as the items are reported or otherwise ascertained

Section 3 That section seven of said act which was amended by the said act approved the twenty-first day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws two hundred twenty-three) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 7 [After any particular deposit of money made otherwise than in a saving-fund savings institution or savings bank subject to the provisions of an act entitled "An act relating to unclaimed deposits in savings banks and transfer of stock" approved the seventeenth day of April Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred seventy-two (Pamphlet Laws page sixty-two) shall not have been increased or decreased or if not increased or decreased shall not be known to have been credited with interest on the pass book or certificate of deposit of the depositor at his request for the period of fourteen successive years the same shall be escheatable to the Commonwealth and shall be escheated in the manner hereinafter provided with interest thereon actually accrued to the date of the decree for the escheat of the same whether such deposit was at the expiration of said period in the possession of the depository with which it was originally deposited or in the possession of another depository which took over mediately or immediately in any manner whether before or after the expiration of said period for fourteen years the deposits of the depositary with which the deposit was originally made]

After the owner beneficial owner or person entitled to any of the following named moneys or property shall be and remain unknown or the whereabouts thereof shall have been unknown for the period of seven successive years such moneys or property shall be escheatable to the Commonwealth and shall be escheated in the manner hereinafter provided with interest actually accrued thereon to the date of the decree for the escheat of the same namely

(a) Moneys or other estate of any kind whatsoever held by any person [bank national bank trust company] or [other] association or corporation as guardian committee executor administrator assignee or receiver or as trustees under or by reason of a dry trust or under or by reason of any other trust the active duties of which have terminated except the delivery or payment to the beneficiaries thereunder of the subject of the trust and any increments accrued thereon

(b) Any moneys estate or effects paid into or deposited in any court of this Commonwealth or in any Federal court in and for any district within the Commonwealth or in the custody of any officer of any such court

After any moneys or property held by any person [bank national bank trust company] or [other] corporation or by any association limited partnership or copartnership belonging to any other person the escheat of which is not otherwise provided for in this section has been and remained unclaimed by the person for whom the same is held for the period of seven or more successive years such moneys or property shall be escheatable to the Commonwealth and shall be escheated in the manner hereinafter provided with interest actually accrued thereon to the date of the decree for the escheat of the same

After any dividend or dividends profit or profits declared by any [bank national bank trust company] or [other] corporation or association or by any partnership and after any debt or interest on any debt or debts owed by any such [bank national bank trust company or] corporation association or copartnership shall have been and remained due and unpaid for three successive years such dividends or profits debt or interest on debt shall be escheatable to the Commonwealth and shall be escheated in the manner hereinafter provided with interest actually accrued thereon to the date of the decree for the escheat of the same

Such escheat shall at the suggestion of the Auditor General be determined and enforced by an action in the nature of a bill in equity filed by and in the name of the Attorney General against the depositary fiduciary or debtor and all of his or its depositors beneficiaries or creditors for whom he or it holds unclaimed moneys escheatable under the provisions of this act in the appropriate court for the county where the debtor if an individual resides or if a corporation where it maintains its principal office Such action shall be brought in the court of common pleas except (a) Where it is sought to escheat unclaimed trust funds in which case the same shall be brought in the court having jurisdiction of such funds and except (b) where it is sought to escheat moneys paid into or deposited in a court or in the custody of any officer thereof in which case such action shall be brought in the court into which the money was paid or in which it was deposited or in the custody of an officer of which court the said moneys are

When the moneys have been paid into and are in the custody of any court the escheat of the same shall be determined and enforced at the suggestion of the Auditor General by a petition filed by the Attorney General in said court upon which proceedings shall be had as in other cases of escheat provided for by this section Proceedings for the escheat of moneys in the possession or custody of any officer of any court shall be by a bill as provided for by this section in other cases in which bill such officer and the persons entitled to such moneys shall be made codefendants

Any such escheat proceedings may be prosecuted whether the deposits dividends moneys funds or other property or estate sought to be escheated shall have been reported to the Auditor General in conformity with the provisions of this act or have not been so reported Any number of items may be joined in one action against one debtor though owed to different creditors

If service of the bill cannot be had on the creditor's defendant within the State service shall be made by publication for two successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which the debtor is resident or has its principal office and also when practicable for the same period in such a newspaper published in the county within or without the Commonwealth where when last heard from by the debtor the creditor had his residence Publication may be made in such form as the court shall direct and need not contain any order or other paper in full

If such creditors or their legal representatives shall appear in the cause within the time limited by the court and establish their right to recover said sums from the debtor but for the provisions of this act and if this right shall not be barred by the statute of limitations or presumption of payment a decree shall be made for the payment of said sums to them after paying their proportionate part of the costs of the cause and of said advertising Provided That such persons on demand may have any issue of fact determined by a jury and if they shall not so appear and establish such right a decree shall be made that said sums have escheated and shall be paid by the debtor to the State Treasurer for the use of the Commonwealth and the amount of such decree shall bear interest at the rate of twelve per centum per year from sixty days after the same is made and such decree shall be effectual to bar the creditors from claiming the said sums from the debtor An appeal may be taken by either or any party to such action to the Supreme Court at any time within thirty days after the date of the decree issued therein

An action may be begun in the nature of a bill for discovery merely with respect to the subject matter of this act whether in this or other sections hereof against the debtor without the necessity of specifying the items which should escheat with the right to compel an answer under oath to subpoena all persons as witnesses and to compel the production of all books papers and records and from time to time the bill may be amended to pray for the escheat of specific items under this section seven and to make parties to the bill the creditors as ascertained

Section 4 That section eleven of said act which was amended by the said act approved the twenty-first day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws two hundred and twenty-three) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 11 The word "debtor" in this act shall include persons copartnerships associations [banks national banks trust companies] and other corporations who or which have received deposits of money declared dividends or profits or owed debts or interest on debts and trustees guardians committees executors administrators assignees receivers or other persons or corporations who have received and hold moneys in any fiduciary capacity whatsoever or continue to hold the same or any portion of increment thereof after the termination of the fiduciary relation and shall also include officers of courts holding funds escheatable under the provisions of this act

Section 5 That section one of said act as amended by the said act approved the twenty-first day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws two hundred and twenty-three) except the enacting clause thereof and section three of said act as amended by the said act approved the twelfth day of July one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws nine hundred and twenty-six) are hereby repealed absolutely Provided however That such repeals shall not be construed to revive any act or acts of assembly heretofore repealed

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I believe there are more men in this Senate that are under a misapprehension as to what this bill provides than there are those who understand it. Yesterday we voted back to the national banks four hundred and twenty thousand dollars to pay them for escheats the State has collected from them. This bill merely provides that the trust companies and State banks and banking corporations shall be put on an equality with national banks and shall not be required to pay these escheats in the future.

Now, if it is fair to the national banks, it seems to me it ought to be equally fair with the trust companies the State banks and other banking companies; and I do not believe the bankers in this room understand the meaning of this act. The Supreme Court sometime ago decided they could not collect from national banks and that was the reason for introducing this bill, for the return of the money to them as Senator Buckman explained to us yesterday afternoon. I have no personal interest in this bill except that it is right and I think this Senate should pass it.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Barr, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, the statements made by the Senator from Potter, Mr. Baldwin, did not carry with it all the facts. Under the Act of Congress the national banks having money in their possession that does not belong to them, the federal government can escheat that money to the United States Treasury; and the decision of the Supreme Court on the right of a State to take that money was because it interfered with the federal government's right.

If you turn back the moneys to trust companies and banks, incorporated under the State of Pennsylvania, there is no person or institution to which you can escheat that money. It is clearly and simply the moneys belonging to other people, and it would rest in the banks; and if this act passes, the State of Pennsylvania has lost its right but the United States Government, under the decision of the Supreme Court, has not lost its right. That is what the decision means; it is very plain to me.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I attended a tax commission meeting in Washington last autumn, and a gentleman stood up there as an authority on this question and said "Congress cannot escheat money from the national banks, there is no provision to escheat it to the federal treasury and never will be. I only want to correct the statement of the Senator from Allegheny.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I want to say in answer to the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Barr, that while the federal government may sometimes have that power they are not exercising it at this time, and that the bill before the Senate does not pay back the money to the banks, as does the bill which we passed here yesterday. The trust companies and the banks are not payed back the money, it has all been escheated to the State, but it is provided in the future that they shall not be expected to pay the escheats to the State, not more than the national banks would be expected to do it.

And the question recurring,

HOUSE MESSAGE.

MOTION TO REPRINT HOUSE BILL No. 392.

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was read twice as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 7, 1925.

Moved by the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Alexander, seconded by the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, that House Bill No. 392 be returned to the Senate with the request that the Senate have said bill printed with all cut-outs in brackets and inserts in italics, so that the members of the House can ascertain the amendments made by the Senate in committee and committee of the whole.

On the question,

Will the Senate concur in the same?

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, you find so many cut-outs in this bill, and, of course, they are not all printed in the bill. It is a difficult matter to print that bill according to this motion. If all the amendments made in the House were in brackets and the amendments made in the Senate were in brackets, nobody could tell which brackets were put in in the Senate and which brackets were put in in the House.

That motion would demand the printing of the bill with all cut-outs in brackets. I believe that the bill is now printed in accordance with the Acts of Assembly and the Rules of the Senate; that is to say, that the amendments of the Senate are in brackets and the amendments of the House have been dropped, and that is what they object to in the House.

I believe that the bill is now before the House in accordance with the Acts of Assembly and the Rules of the Senate. It is true that not all the amendments were left in the bill in brackets.

The PRESIDENT. Would there be any objection to having the matter referred to the State Printer?

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr President, not on my part.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I think that the point of order raised on this bill is well taken. I have thought that from the beginning, and took it up with the Secretary of the Senate when this bill was under consideration; and he disagreed with me. The joint rules of the Senate and House are mighty plain. The bill now contains only the amendments made in the Senate. I think the point is well taken.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair does not understand that any joint rules of the House and Senate have been adopted at this session of the Legislature.

Mr. STITES. Mr. President, it seems to me that we have adopted, with regard to this bill, an entirely new form of procedure. Every bill that has been amended, from time to time, in my experience, at least, has had the successive amendments. Why not?

We ought to be able to see at a glance what was originally proposed, what was changed afterward, and what the ultimate result is. I agree with the House in regard to that bill. We ought to see successively what the stage of amendment have been. It may be troublesome, but nevertheless, the members of the Senate and House are entitled to enlightment as to just what has been done with the bill as it has gone along from stage to stage. If these amendments can be reinstated in brackets, that ought to be done.

The President. If there is no objection, the Secretary will take it up with the State Printer and see if it cannot be arranged, so that the objection interposed will be overcome. The Chair hears no objection.

On the question,

Will the Senate concur in the motion?

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I move that the question, together with the further consideration of the motion, be postponed for the present.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

TUESDAY, April 7th, 1925.

The House met at 11:00 o'clock A. M.

The SPEAKER (Thomas Bluett) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. George P. Donehoo, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, we thank Thee this bright morning for Thy light and for Thy sunshine, and we pray Thee that our lives may be full of light and full of sunshine, that they may be as open as Thy light this day. Deliver us from the bondage of fear and hypocrisy; and we pray Thee this week, when Israelite and Christian alike celebrate this holy week of deliverance from the house of bondage and fear and slavery and from the bondage of sin, that we, all of us, may enter into the spirit of this week of springtime and that neither this House nor any other place in this world may be a house of bondage or fear to any of us. Bless us this day; be with the Speaker and the members of this House, and may we, from the commencement of this morning's prayer, be filled with light and sunshine and good cheer, we ask in Thy name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday's proceedings.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON HOUSE BILL No. 392.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has insisted upon its amendments, nonconcurred in by the House of Representatives, to House Bill No. 392, entitled:

An Act to provide for the ordinary expenses of the executive judicial and legislative departments of the Commonwealth interest on the public debt and the support of the public schools for the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five and for the payment of bills incurred and remaining unpaid at the close of the fiscal year ending May thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five

And has appointed Messrs. Schantz, Eyre and Stites a committee of conference to confer with a similar committee of the House of Representatives (if the House of Representatives shall appoint such committee) on the subject of the differences existing between the two houses in relation to said bill.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, House Bill No. 392, as amended by the Senate is not properly on our files. House Bill No. 392, file folio 5585, which is the last file folio on our files, shows just nineteen changes but they are not marked as amendments. When the bill left the House it had eighty-six pages to which there have been twenty pages cut out and it now has sixty-seven pages. The bill does not show the amendments as were made by either the committee of the Senate or by the House. Yesterday it required me two hours by getting up file folio 4155, file folio 5259 and file folio 5585, which were the last three file folios, and the House will have to compare those bills carefully to tell what amendments are in this bill. In other words, there are $4,344,500 of amendments that do not show in the bill that we have on file. $5,975,610 does show. Therefore, over half of the amendments do not show in the bill that we have on file. This House I find, at the present time, is unable to tell what amendments have been made to this bill by the Senate by examination of the last file folio which we have on file.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to state that for the time being, this bill will be laid aside so that we can have an opportunity to compare it and see that all amendments and pages are in it.

NAYS—1.

Ludlow.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 290, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Saint John's General Hospital of Pittsburgh Pennsylvania

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. STRAYER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. STRAYER. Mr. Speaker, my point of order is that this bill is unconstitutional because it carries an appropriation to a sectrian institution and I request that the question be referred to the House for a decision.

The SPEAKER. The Chair rules that the required number of members under the rule having raised the question of the constitutionality of this bill, with the request that it be decided by the House, the Chair submits the question as to the constitutionality of this act to the House for its decision.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker, I understood the gentleman to say that this was an appropriation to a sectarian institution. I understand that is a question of fact and I want to ask the chairman of the Appropriation Committee, who is familiar with these facts, if he will not give us ample information on the subject as to the character of the institution.

Mr. McCAIG. Mr. Speaker, when the question of appropriating to sectarian institutions—

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. STRAYER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. STRAYER. Mr. Speaker, my point of order is that the question is not debatable under the rules.

The SPEAKER. The Chair rules the point of order not well taken. The gentleman from Allegheny will proceed.

Mr. McCAIG. Mr. Speaker, when the question of the constitutionality of appropriating money to these institutions arose, the case of the St. Vincent's Hospital, in Erie, was taken into court and carried from the county court into the Supreme Court. After the decision had been made on this particular case, an investigation was made by the Auditor General and others, particularly the Welfare Department, as to whether the institutions were sectarian, and according to the decision rendered by the Supreme Court, which I hold in my hand, there is nothing in the seven following institutions contained in a letter from the Auditor General, which I shall read, to show that they are sectarian. The letter from the Auditor General's Office is as follows: "The records of this office show that after thorough investigation the following institutions were classed as non-sectarian, and that they have been and are now being paid out of the 1923 specific appropriations to each of them; Orphan's Asylum of the Holy Family, Emsworth, Pa.; St. John's General Hospital, Pittsburgh; Roselian Foundling Asylum and Maternity Home, Pittsburgh; the Spencer Hospital, Meadville; St. Vincent's Hospital, Erie; St. Francis Hospital, Pittsburgh; the Mercy Hospital, of Wilkes Barre. Very truly yours, S. S. Lewis, Auditor General." I want to call your attention to the fact that when a bill passes here and goes to the Governor, it is submitted to the Attorney eneral for his approval. Two years ago he approved them, to all appearances; otherwise, the Governor would not have signed the bills and these institutions would not have received their money. The fact that they have passed and were signed by the Governor and they have already been paid up to date, not nearly as much as the free work they have done, because there is not one of them that is not worth every dollar this State can give them for the free work done, proves to me they are non-sectarian. I have knowledge of some of these institutions, of the board of trustees, of the way they function and transact the business of these organizations, and that is why these seven were classed as non-sectarian. I also have the directory of the Department of Welfare, children's institutions and child-parent societies, prepared by the Bureau of Children, which comes from the Department of Welfare, and on page 27, I call attention to the bill that was defeated the other day, the Roselia Foundling and Maternity Hospital, Cliff and Manilla Streets,—and this is after careful investigation by the Welfare Department, and there are in the room people who made that investigation, sitting on the sidelines,—Pittsburgh, Allegheny County, non-sectarian, children, birth to three years old; adults any age; capacity one hundred and nine children, sixty-eight women. That is one of the institutions that appears in this list of seven. I call attention again, on page twenty-five, to one of these seven, on which you will have a chance to vote, and also after careful investigation by the Welfare Department, here is what they say, "Orphan's Asylum of the Holy Family, Emsworth, Pittsburgh, Pa., non-sectarian, although under the care of the Roman Catholic Sisters. Cares chiefly for Polish children, eighteen months to fourteen years; capacity, five hundred. When I visited them, on last Saturday, they had five hundred and thirty-two children there, ranging from eighteen months up, and if any person in this House would pay a visit to this institution, there would not be one dissenting vote on this bill, I ask you gentlemen and ladies, in all fairness to these institutions who do so much good for people who are not able to pay, do not deprive them of your support, because they have been thoroughly investigated by the Auditor General and the Welfare Department, and when the Auditor General, says, "After making a thorough investigation, I feel they should receive their money." I visited these institutions two weeks ago on Saturday, the St. John's Hospital, which is now before you, and there were in the wards twenty-seven charity patients, among them some very deplorable cases; little children with braces on them being taken care of in the ortheopedic departmnt. I would, therefore, ask that you vote for these bills as they come before you.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, the question has been raised as to whether or not this is a sectarian institution. In answer to the question of my friend from Philadelphia, Mr. Edmonds, I am more closely affiliated with this hospital than any other member of the House. The institution is non-sectarian; the management is under the control of nine directors or trustees, who have absolute charge and control of the hospital property. In a purely sectarian institution, under the Catholic faith, you must apply to the Bishop, the property is in the hands of the Bishop, and you cannot do a single thing in any sectarian hospital under Catholic control unless the Bishop puts his official O. K. upon everything. The St. John's Hospital is absolutely under the control of the nine directors, the property of the insitution is within the board, and no one has a right to say anything as to the management and control, except the bord of trustees, and I can verify this. I will tell the members of the House that I will not vote for this bill for the reason that I am on the board of trustees of that particular hospital, and if there is anyone who is familiar with the fact as to whether it is sectarian or not, you may look upon your humble speaker who says that he knows absolutely it is non-sectarian. I have no desire to get on this floor and tell you, ladies and gentlemen, that you violate the Constitution. That is not my purpose, but I am telling you the explicit truth and if you doubt my word vote this bill down; if you believe me, then I ask that every member in this House vote for this bill. You would be surprised at the work we are doing there. We are in an industrial section. The hospital itself was first organized by the Lutheran Sisters but they could not make it go. The property was then turned over to us as trustees of this particular institution. We were at a loss as to how to get the hospital in proper operation, we could not employ anybody because we had no money, and the State refused to give us an increase. We had to turn around somewhere and enter into a contract with someone who would help us out. We went to the Sisters of Divine Providence, and we asked them if they would help us with this hospital. And they said, "Yes, we will be glad to help you." We told them it was absolutely non-sectarian and that we would not allow any religious influences in this hospital. Today in that hospital the Rabbi, the Preacher, the Minister, and the Priest, may go in there, and anybody may be administered to. There is not a setback to anyone; therefore, members of the House lay aside this prejudice as against this particular institution, and vote for the bill. As I told you before, I will not vote for fear you might say that I have an interest in this institution.

On the question,

Will the House sustain the point of order raised by the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Strayer, that this bill is not constitutional?

By a viva voce vote the point of order was not sustained.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is decided by the House as not well taken. Therefore,

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

BILLS ON THIRD READING.
(SPECIAL ORDER.)

The SPEAKER. The hour of 12:00 o'clock noon having arrived, the House will proceed to the special order of business set for that hour.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 997, entitled:

An Act to amend section eight of an act approved the nineteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws ten hundred and sixty) entitled "An act to provide for licensing and regulating private banking in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and providing penalties for the violation thereof" and providing certain exceptions to which the provisions of the act shall not apply

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker, with reference to House Bill No. 997, which is now upon its final passage, I have been asked to make an explanation of its contents. This bill is an amendment to the private banking act of 1911, in one particular. There was a group of private banks, I think less than fifteen in Pennsylvania, that filed a bond with the Commissioner of Banking, and because they filed that bond they were exempt from examination by the Banking Commissioner. One of these private banks failed in Philadelphia recently . There was a bond in Harrisburg to protect the depositors in the amount of $100,000, but there were liabilities many times in excess of that amount, and consequently it seemed to the Banking Commissioner that it would be good practice if his supervisory authority were extended over these private banking institutions, and that is the sole object of this bill. I have been asked by some of the members whether this bill had anything to do with the establishment of branch banks; it has not, it does not touch that question. I have been asked whether it has anything to do with the changing of the rates of interest on bank loans. It has nothing to do with that. The only thing it provides is that the private banks that have filed a bond with the Commonwealth are subject to the supervision of the Banking Commissioner so as to prevent things from happening that occurred recently in our community. With that explanation, I trust that the bill will commend itself to the members of the House.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HAWS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill, No. 1466, that is now before you is an enabling act to enable the city of Philadelphia to lay out streets, parkways and boulevards, and for the selection of sites in order to prepare for that great celebration, the One Hundred and Fiftieth Anniversary of the signing of the Declaration. I might say that all of the states of the Union have been invited to participate in this great celebration, and all of the states of the Union are going to participate. I may say also that all the foreign countries have practically signified their intention to participate and show their wares to the other people of the world. I may say too, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, with pardonable pride, we in Philadelphia say that this is going to be the greatest exposition of all times. In the selection of sites there is to be a site selected upon which a building of the proper architectural design and type is to be erected known as the Pennsylvania Building, in which all the historical development and natural resources of this great state of Pennsylvania will be shown to the people of the world. I ask you, in view of this, to give this bill your unanimous support.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the previsions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 536, as follows:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to article nine setion eight of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania be and the same is hereby proposed in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof

That article nine section eight of the Constitution of Pennsylvania is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 8 The debt of any city borough township school district or other municipality or incorporated district except as provided herein and in section fifteen of this article shall never exceed seven (7) per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein and the debt of any county except as provided in section fifteen of this article shall never exceed ten (10) per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable realty therein but the debt of the city of Philadelphia may be increased in such amount that the total city debt of said city shall not exceed fourteen (14) per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable realty therein nor shall any such county municipality or district incur any new debt or increase its indebtednes to an amount exceeding two (2) per centum upon such assesed valuation of taxable realty in the case of counties or taxable property in the case of other municipalities or districts without the consent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law but the city of Philadelphia may incur any debt or increase its indebtedness to an amount not exceeding three per centum of the valuation of taxable realty in said city without the consent of the electors In ascertaining the borrowing capacity of the city of Philadelphia at any time there shall be deducted from such debt so much of the debt of said city as shall have been incurred or is about to be incurred and the proceeds thereof expended or about to be expended upon any public improvement or in the construction purchase or condemnation of of any public utility or part thereof or facility therefor to the extent that such public improvement or public utility or part thereof whether separately or in connection with any other public improvement or public utility or part thereof may yield or may reasonably be expected to yield revenue in excess of operating expenses for or towards the payment of the interest and sinking-fund charges thereon The method of determining such amount so to be deducted shall be prescribed by the General Assembly

In incurring indebtedness for any purpose the city of Philadelphia may issue its obligations maturing not later than fifty (50) years from the date thereof with provision for a sinking-fund sufficient to retire said obligations at maturity the payment to such sinking-fund to be in equal or graded annual or other periodical instalments Where any indebtedness shall be or shall have been incurred by said city of Philadelphia for the purpose of the construction or improvements of public works or utilities of any character from which income or revenue is to be derived by said city or for the reclamation of land to be used in the construction of wharves or docks owned or to be owned by said city such obligations may be in an amount sufficient to provide for and may include the amount of the interest and sinking-fund charges accruing and which may accrue thereon throughout the period of construction and until the expiration of one year after the completion of the work for which said indebtedness shall have been incurred and said city shall not be required to levy a tax to pay said interest and sinking fund charges as required by section ten article nine of the constitution of Pennsylvania until the expiration of said period of one year after the completion of said work

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, with reference to House Bill No. 536, which is now up for final consideration, this is another one of the amendments proposed by the Tax Commission as relates to local debt. The object of it is this: At the present time under the laws of the Commonwealth the percentage of local debts is computed upon realty value and personality value and under a strange decision of the Supreme Court forty years ago even upon the basis of the assessment of the occupation tax. We have thought and have thought for a long time that to borrow money upon the basis of the occupation tax and upon the basis of personalty are in themselves poor fiscal measures. You can borrow money upon the percentage of realty that is fixed, but personality varies so much that it causes a lot of confusion. In presenting this bill we have dropped and propose to increase the percentage of debt upon realty, simply by the elimination of personalty. For instance in Philadelphia, we increase the basis upon realty for four to fourteen per cent, but that merely takes up what we propose to abolish with respect to the occupation tax and personalty. The general feeling the whole country over is that the basis of municipal debt should be on the assessed value of realty alone and not on the personal property tax. The different counties have all borrowed money on their assessment of personal property, and the idea, therefore, of the present amendment is to put it back where it ought to be, on realty and on realty alone.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to he provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows; viz:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1425, entitled:

An Act making it unlawful to indicate any other than standard time on any public building or thoroughfare or to furnish any other than standard time in the course of business

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. DILSHEIMER. Mr. Speaker, I would like the sponsor of this bill to explain it to the House.

Miss GRIMES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill amends the Derrick bill passed at the last session which makes for Pennsylvania a uniform standard time. It makes the legal time standard Eastern Standard Time. This bill amends that bill to make the indicator of legal time to conform with the law. The clock is the indicator of the time and the clock should conform to the law. We have laws regarding weights and measures. It is illegal to make a yard measure less than thirty-six inches; it is illegal to make certain weights or certain measures for measuring things less than the legal rate of proper measurement. It is a misdemeanor to use false weights and measures on any of the things we people buy in the state. There is nothing in the provisions of this bill compelling organizations from having their own private time, there is nothing that prevents people from agreeing to go to work an hour earlier, and stopping an hour earlier if they so choose, but it does provide that the device which marks legal time shall conform to our law in this state. The confusion that everybody is familiar with in travelling from one city to another under the present condition of changing the clocks is something that ought to be stopped, and which I believe this bill will stop. I personally like the long evenings, the long twilight, but as a matter of general welfare I think this bill should pass. A great many years ago we had a meeting of scientists from all over the world who established a standard of time for the world to be computed upon meridians of longitude. We are all familiar with the problem that has enabled us to find what time it is in San Francisco when it is twelve o'clock in Harrisburg. To-day nobody knows what time it is anywhere, and I protest at this confusion arising from the throwing out of the established order of things that have been fixed that way. It is a dangerous thing. During the war we did all those things but I protest to that now. We ought to get back to sanity and regulate our own lives, eat and drink what we want to eat and drink and go to bed when we want to go to bed.

Mr. DILSHEIMER. Mr. Speaker I wish to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the sponsor of the bill, Miss Grimes, permit herself to be interrogated?

Miss GRIMES. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. DILSHEIMER. I wish to ask the sponsor of this bill whether we have not at the present time sufficient legislation to cover this situation which this bill describes. In other words, the Derrick Bill which was passed in the 1921 session, I believe covers all the ground necessary according to this bill. I don't see any necessity whatsoever for this bill to be put on the statute books as we have legislation to that effect at the present time covering all the ground necessary.

Miss GRIMES. Is that all, Mr. Dilsheimer?

Mr. DILSHEIMER. I wish to ask the lady that question.

Miss GRIMES. You have answered your own question.

Mr. DILSHEIMER. Whether the Derrick Bill does not cover the ground?

Miss GRIMES. I think not, sir.

Mr. DILSHEIMER. Mr. Speaker, and ladies and gentlemen of this House, I actually believe that the Derrick Bill which we passed four years ago, in the 1921 session, covers entirely the ground which is described in this bill. I don't see any necessity whatsoever of putting more legislation on our statute books which are duplicates of laws which are already in existence. Therefore, it is my own belief that we should vote this bill down.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, two years ago, in the 1923 session this Legislature enacted into law what was known as the Derrick Bill, but the Derrick Bill, or what is now the Derrick Law carries with it no penalty. It has no enforcement provision. As it stands today in its practical effect the Derrick Law is only a suggestion. While it says that the time in Pennsylvania shall be standard time it carries with it no penalty of any kind for its enforcement. Now I submit to you that we are here not to make suggestions to the people of Pennsylvania, but we are here to enact laws, and if the Derrick Law is to be a law it should have a penalty, it should have a provision for its enforcement. That is all that this bill does. If any firm or corporation wishes to start an hour earlier during the summer months, why it has that privilege. This bill would not prohibit that, but it would prohibit them from changing the clock, setting it ahead an hour and thus bringing about the same confusion that we had before the passage of the Derrick Bill. We ought to remember that the object and purpose of the Derrick Bill was to get away from the confusion which resulted from local daylight saving. When we had national daylight saving, the result was not so injurious because there was not so much confusion, but local daylight saving resulted in a great deal of confusion all over the State and the Derrick Law was passed for the explicit purpose of getting away from that confusion as to time. This bill simply puts a few teeth into the Derrick Law, and provides for its enforcement, while this Derrick Law really remains in effect only as a suggestion. As I said before I believe we are here not to make suggestions to the people of Pennsylvania, but we are here to enact laws for the State of Pennsylvania. Therefore, I am in favor of this bill.

Such appeal shall be taken within a reasonable time as provided by the rules of the board by filing with the officer from whom the appeal is taken and with the board of appeals a notice of appeal specifying the grounds thereof The officer from whom the appeal is taken shall forthwith transmit to the board all the papers constituting the record upon which the action appealed from was taken

An appeal stays all proceedings in furtherance of the action appealed from unless the officer from whom the appeal is taken certifies to the board of appeals after the notice of appeal shall have been filed with him that by reason of facts stated in the certificate a stay would in his opinion cause imminent peril to life or property In such case proceedings shall not be stayed otherwise than by a restraining order which may be granted by the board of appeals or by a court of record on application on notice to the officer from whom the appeal is taken and on due cause shown

The board of appeals shall fix a reasonble time for the hearing of the appeal give public notice thereof as well as due notice at least six days prior to the hearing by mail to the parties in interest at the address filed with the appeal and decide the same within a reasonable time Upon the hearing any party may appear in person or by agent or by attorney

The board of appeals shall have the following powers

1 To hear and decide appeals where it is alleged there is error in any order requirement decisions or determination made by an administrative official in the enforcement of this act or of any ordinance adopted pursuant thereto

2 To hear and decide special exceptions to the terms of the ordinance upon which such board is required to pass under such ordinance

3 To authorize upon appeal in specific cases such variance from the terms of the ordinance as will not be contrary to the public interest where owing to special conditions a literal enforcement of the provisions of the ordinance will result in unnecessary hardship so that the spirit of the ordinance shall be observed and substantial justice done

In exercising the above-mentioned powers such board may in conformity with the provisions of this act reverse or affirm wholly or partly or may modify the order requirement decision or determination appealed from and may make such order requirement decision or determination as ought to be made and to that end shall have all the powers of the officer from whom the appeal is taken

Any person or persons jointly or severally aggrieved by any decision of the board of appeals or any taxpayer or any officer department board or bureau of the municipality may present to the court of common pleas of the respective county a petition duly verified setting forth that such decision is illegal in whole or in part specifying the grounds of the illegality such petition must be presented to the court within thirty days after the filing of the decision in the office of the board

Upon the presentation of such petition the court may allow an appeal directed to the board of appeals to review such decision of the board of appeals and shall prescribe therein the time within which a return thereto must be made and served upon the relator's attorney which shall not be less than ten days and may be extended by the court The allowance of the writ shall not stay proceedings upon the decision appealed from but the court may on application on notice to the board and on due cause shown grant a restraining order

The board of appeals shall not be required to return the original papers acted upon by it but it shall be sufficient to return certified or sworn copies thereof or of such portions thereof as may be called for by such writ the return shall concisely set forth such other facts as may be pertinent and material to show the grounds of the decision appealed from and shall be verified

If upon the hearing it shall appear to the court that testimony is necessary for proper disposition of the matter it may take evidence or appoint referee to take such evidence as it may direct and report the same to the court with his findings of fact and conclusions of law which shall constitute a part of the proceedings upon which the determination of the court shall be made The court may reverse or affirm wholly or partly or may modify the decision brought up for review

Costs shall not be allowed against the board unless it shall appear to the court that it acted with gross negligence or in bad faith or with malice in making the decision appealed from

All issues in any proceeding under this section shall have preference over all other civil actions and proceedings

Section 5 The legislative body of such cities may provide by ordinance for the enforcement of this act and may provide in such ordinance for the imposition of fines for the violation of any of the provisions of such ordinance and for imprisonment in cases of default in the payment of such fine and costs The said Legislative body is also empowered to provide civil penalties for such violations

Section 6 The provisions of this act shall be severable and if any of its provisions shall be held to be unconstitutional the decision of the court shall not affect or impair any of the remaining provisions of the act It is hereby declared as a legislative intent this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provision not been included therein

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—1.

Anderson,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 559, entitled:

An Act prohibiting public service companies engaged in the business of furnishing manufacturing or selling gas water electric light electric power or telephone service from imposing any ready to serve or meter charge or meter rental charge and providing a penalty

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STORB. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill, the gentleman from Lycoming, Mr. Harer.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lycoming, Mr. Harer, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HARER. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. STORB. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Lycoming, Mr. Harer, what his object is in trying to tie the hands of the Public Service Commission, as this is their way of making a rate.

Mr. HARER. In order to do that, I will have to have the gentleman's reasons for saying this bill ties their hands.

Mr. STORB. Well, this is simply a rate-making case. This body established the Public Service Commission to do that very thing, and I do not see any use in trying to tie their hands. The engineers outside the Public Service Commission have decided that this is really the best way to make rates, because in distribution gas, there is a vast difference between distributing merchandise goods and distributing gas by a public utility company. The cost of distributing gas and the cost of distributing water is more than the cost of the articles themselves on account of the great expense that these corporations are put into to put these mains and conduits through the streets. These utility companies all over the State that were chartered years ago, some of them put in these conduits at the expense of the municipalities, others put them in at the expense of the body of property owners. Their complaint is, they cannot make any uniform rate, and the Public Service Commission has established this rate, or this way of getting at the uniform rate which they think is fairest of all.

Mr. HARER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill is not a new bill in the House. My old friends have met with it every year. I realize and personally appreciate all that the gentleman from Montgomery has said. The people in my territory are not satisfied with the action of the Public Service Commission, and therefore have appealed to the Legislature for relief in this matter. I think every man in this House is familiar with the provisions of the bill, and what it desires to accomplish. The people up there have demanded for a long time relief from this line of rate making, and the relief has been given in a good many sections of the State, but not so in Lycoming county. I have here a petition with 10,000 names on it taken in the three counties of Lycoming, Clinton and Northumberland, people who object to this way of rate making. I am not here tonight to argue on the merits or demerits of the way that the Public Service Commission arrive at these rates, but simply to state that they do not get the relief, they do not think they get the relief from the Public Service Commission, and therefore have appealed to the Legislature in this matter, and I ask you to support this measure.

Mr. STORB. Mr. Speaker, these people can get relief by going into courts if not satisfied with the Public Service Commission. It is not necessary to upset the rate-making of the whole State of Pennsylvania because one set of people think they do not get what they want. Why do they not go to the courts and get relief if not treated right?

Mr. WELTY. Mr. Speaker, the proponents of this bill had a hearing before the Judiciary Special Committee, and at that hearing it developed that certain or particular districts in the State and local districts were dissatisfied with the service rates of public Service corporations. The Legislature of this Comomnwealth has provided the Public Service Commission to deal with the evils and rates which arise under Public Service laws, and the rates which public service companies must charge. It seems to me to be an unsound precedent, an unsound business proposition, for this Legislature to interfere with the engineering management of public service corporations and to attempt to rectify evils or causes for evils which certain individuals may think they have against certain public service corporations. They have their rights before the Public Service Commission, and if they are dissatisfied with the ruling of the Public Service Commission, they have the right in due course to take their appeal to the higher courts; and I would ask you, as a sound business proposition and as an unsafe precedent to establish, to vote against this bill.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, this bill is intended to do away with what is known as the service charge. Now, on the surface of it, it looks like a very good bill, but let us see just how it works out. You take any one of your large cities, and you find that under your law you have electric light companies and you have gas companies and under the law, both of them are compelled to furnish service to anybody that requires it. You take the main street of any one of the big cities of Pennsylvania, and the people abutting thereon will all practically use electricity for lighting purposes, but the gas company is compelled to furnish that service. They only use gas when the electric light system gets out of working order. Very often they do not use any at all during the month, and maybe they may use thirty cents' worth, only for a few moments until their electric system is restored. Under this bill, the gas company may have to furnish each and every business house with service. That means this: That none of these companies are in business for charitable reasons, and somebody somewhere has to pay for this service. When the gas company is compelled to furnish this service, somebody else has to pay for it, and the fellow who uses gas regularly, the poor man in the poor man's home where gas is used steadily and regularly, he will have to make up for the service that is put in the heart of the city for the big business corporations. It seems to me that it is unfair that if these service companies are compelled, as they are by law, to furnish this service, certainly they have the right to make a charge for it, because if they do not, it will only put it on to somebody that uses gas will have to make up for that charge. I think it is only right and fair the way it is at the present time that if these big mercantile houses want this service, they should be willing to pay a service charge for it and not load it on the poor fellow in the outskirts of the city who uses gas regularly.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the onstCitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—33.

BILL PLACED ON CALENDAR.

Mr. CHRISTIAN MILLER. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 985, file folio 6153, entitled:

An Act to amend section three hundred and one and three hundred and six and three hundred and seven as amended of an act approved the second day of June one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred and thirty-six) entitled "An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for injuries received by an employe in the course of employment establishing an elective schedule of compensation and providing procedure for the determination of liability and compensation thereunder" be placed upon the calendar, notwithstanding the negative recommendation of the Committee.

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. HAAS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the motion here is to place upon the calendar House Bill No. 985, known as the amendment to the Workmen's Compensation Act. The bill was introduced on the 25th of February and lay in the committee until yesterday. At that time, at a second public hearing, a number of amendments were offered to this bill. These amendments have not been inserted. The demand for this bill at the present time can be seen by the fact that thirty-eight states now pay fifteen or more dollars a week in workmen's compensation for injury as a maximum. Thirty-five states have a waiting period of seven days or less. This bill provides for an increase from twelve dollars to fifteen dollars. It also provides for the reduction to seven days. An amendment was offered in the committee, bringing it back to ten dollars, with the proviso that should the injury extend beyond the period of four weeks—

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. HAWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia will state his point of order.

Mr. HAWS. Mr. Speaker, the question before the House is whether this bill goes on the calendar again. The gentleman is discussing the bill.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman's point of order is well taken. The motion before the House is whether or not this particular bill will be placed upon the calendar, notwithstanding the negative recommendation of the committee, not the bill itself.

Mr. HAAS. Mr. Speaker, the motion is to place the bill on the calendar, notwithstanding the negative recommendation of the committee. I ask you members of the House to place this bill upon the calendar.

Mr. BEHNEY. Mr. Speaker and fellow members of the House, as Chairman of your Committee on Insurance, which had the bill, which is now under consideration, before it, I feel it is my duty to you and the fellow members of my committee to tell you that the Committee on Insurance has given every consideration to the bill which is now under consideration. There was presented to the Committee on Insurance two bills affecting workmen's compensation. The one bill reduces materially the provisions whereby an injured employe would receive compensation from his employer. The other bill, House Bill No. 985, increases materially the compensation allowed to the employee by his employer when injured. The bill sponsored by Representative Haas, which is now before you, made a number of other changes to the present Workmen's Compensation Law, which placed upon all the employers in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania an additional burden. Your Committee on Insurance, of which I happen to be the Chairman, has given every consideration to the proponents of this measure and to the opponents. We have had a series of hearings, we have heard every question, and we felt—and when I say "we" I mean almost unanimously, the Committee felt that this bill, that the compensation of workmen should neither be reduced nor at this time increased. We have in mind that many industries in this Commonwealth are upon the ragged edge, whereby any increased burden placed upon them might cause the workmen not only to not get compensation, but not to have actual employment. In the soft coal regions of Pennsylvania, business conditions are very poor, and they are so in many other districts, and I therefore ask this House to sustain your committee in reporting this bill with a negative recommendation at this time, because the committee thought at this time neither should an increase be given nor a reduction be made in compensation; but let us see that sound business should prevail and the business interests in Pennsylvania continue to give service to all its people. I ask you for my fellow members of the committee to keep this bill from the calendar.

Mr. CHRISTIAN MILLER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the Chairman of the committee has told you that they had almost unanimously consented in that committee to report the bill out with a negative recommendation. I beg to differ. This bill at one time was referred to a sub-committee. This sub-committee brought the bill back without making any recommendations and placed it in the hands of the committee. He speaks about the public service corporations, the people that have to pay the taxes. I represent one of the biggest corporations in Pennsylvania, who are not averse to paying the advance compensation, and I ask, as a matter of fact, all fair-minded members of this House, to vote in favor of this bill. Why, the idea of compensation today as compared with the compensation at the time that this bill was enacted. Why, the dollar is not worth one-half what it was worth at that time.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. McDermott and Mr. Haas were as follows:

YEAS—100.

RESOLUTION

Mr. TURNER asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer a resolution which was twice read considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, April 7, 1925.

Whereas, When Old Mr. Volstead waived his magic wand over this glorious country of ours it appeared that he had removed from Allentown in Lehigh County, and Reading in Berks County, all things which had made these two cities famous. But it was not so, there still remained one thing which would forever keep these two thriving beehives upon the map. And it is Therefore Resolved, that the Honorable Ernest Racetrack Posey and the Honorable Paris Sunday Fishing Eaches of Reading together with the Blau Brommel of the House, the Honorable Robert Haas and the Honorable Harry J. Smith, the Marathon Singer of Allentown, Be and they are Hereby Directed to furnish a liberal supply of the fruit of these two municipalities, commonly called the pretzel to be given free of all incumberances to the members and their friends before the close of the Legislature and, Be it further Resolved, that to eat Pretzels without some accompanying beverage might cause indigestion or other distressing conditions to those who participate, the Honorable Charles Law and Order Armstrong and together with the Honorable Samuel Perry, the Father of the House and the Philadelphia Forty Faithful, Be and are hereby Directed to furnish Buttermilk that shall not contain more than one-half of one per-cent of anything other than Buttermilk at the sametime that the Pretzels are furnished. And Be It Further Resolved That the above gentlemen do collectively take due notice and govern themselves accordingly.

Signed.....The Honorable Ellwood Tiny Turner and the Four Horsemen.....

Mr. POSEY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, my collegue Mr. Eaches, and myself accept our part of the resolution and there will be Reading Pretzels, plenty of them on Monday evening.

Mr. EACHES. Mr. Speaker, I second the remarks of my colleague, Mr. POSEY.

Mr. HARRY J. SMITH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I promise you that you are going to get Allentown Peanuts next Monday evening.

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speafer, on behalf of myself and after I have an opportunity of conferring with my friend Mr. Armstrong, from Armstrong, to see if the butter milk has nothing more than one-half of one per cent in it, I agree to accept the commission.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

APPROVAL OF RESOLUTION RECALLING HOUSE BILL No. 811.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Governor's Office,
Harrisburg, April 7, 1925.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed a resolution of the House and Senate recalling from the Governor House Bill No. 811, for the purpose of amendment.

Accordingly, the original bill is herewith returned.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

Mr. SHAFFER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill be laid upon the table.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

Mr. GOEHRING asked and obtained leave of absence for himself for the balance of the week on account of professional engagements.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 983, as follows:

An Act to amend section five hundred and forty-two and section five hundred fifty-seven of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and nine), entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" as amended

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section five hundred and forty-two and section five hundred fifty-seven of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and nine) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" which was last amended by section four of the act approved the eleventh day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws five hundred and eight) entitled "An act to amend sections five hundred and thirty-seven five hundred thirty-nine as amended five hundred forty-one five hundred forty-two as amended five hundred forty-three five hundred fifty-six five hundred fifty-seven and five hundred fifty-eight as amended and to repeal section five hundred forty-four of an act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and nine) entitled 'An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith'" is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 542 Each resident or inhabitant over twenty-one years of age in every school district of the second third and fourth classes in this Commonwealth which shall levy such tax shall annually pay for the use of the school district in which he or she is a resident or inhabitant a per capita tax of not less than one dollar nor more than [five] ten dollars as may be assessed by the local school district

Section 557 In case any resident or inhabitant of any school district of the second third or fourth class in this Commonwealth neglects or refuses to pay his or her per capita tax as herein provided after having received ten days' notice or demand so to do the collector of such school taxes shall notify any firm association or corporation where such delinquent taxpayer is employed that such taxpayer has failed or neglected to pay his or her per capita tax as required and such collectors of school taxes may thereupon request the payment of such per capita tax by such employer out of any money then due and owing or thereafter to become due and owing to such delinquent taxpayer whereupon every person firm association or corporation employing any such delinquent taxpayer [may] shall deduct from any wages that are then or may thereafter become due and owing to him the amount of such delinquent per capita tax and pay the same over to such collector of school taxes and the proper receipt for such taxes paid to the tax collector by any employer shall be a good and sufficient voucher to offset any claim that such delinquent taxpayer may have against such employer for any wages to the amount thereof

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I desire to briefly call the attention of the members of the House to the provisions of this bill before us for consideration, to the fact that the per capita tax in school districts of the second, third, and fourth classes in this Commonwealth may be raised to ten dollars, not more than ten dollars, as may be assessed by the local school district. We know that at the present time the law is that they may assess a per capita tax of five dollars. We also know that in many of the school districts they have reached that maximum. Now, under the provisions of this bill the maximum would be ten dollars, and I submit that the burden of taxation would fall upon people who can ill afford that burden. In section 557 we have in line 27, the further proviso that any one employing any such delinquent tax payer "shall deduct from any wages that are then due or may thereafter become due and owing to him the amount of such delinquent for per capita tax," that is the law now, but it simply means this: There are many people who are employed say at ten dollars a week, or fifteen dollars a week, many women who need every dollar they can get to keep themselves and sometimes provide for those who are dependant upon them. I submit that a per capita tax of ten dollars would fall heavily upon those people with meager salaries, who can ill afford to pay that, and for that reason I am against the bill.

Mr. HAAS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, just let me call your attention one minute to this bill we are about to vote upon. I hate to disrupt the peace of quietude of this session. The bill on page 3, says the per capita tax in school districts of the second, third and fourth classes, shall be not less than one dollar nor more than ten dollars. It is an increase from five to ten dollars. In addition to that in Section 557, it says that the collectors of school tax may thereupon request the payment of such per capita tax by such employer out of any money then due and owing or thereafter to become due and owing to such delinquent taxpayer. We are going to make, if we pass this bill, the manufacturing corporations, the industries, the stores, and anything else a means for collecting taxes, because the bill says they shall deduct it from their wages. The bill should absolutely be defeated.

Mr. WRIGHT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, before you vote upon this bill I would like to take it into serious consideration. It proposes an amendment to the present school law which empowers school districts to lay a tax on each resident or inhabitant over twenty-one years of age, a per capita tax of not less than one nor more than five dollars. That is the present law. The amendment increases that amount to ten dollars. I wish to say to you that in the rural sections of the State the present law which allows a tax of five dollars has already proved quite a hardship. My friend, the gentleman from Lycoming, has told you of those young women who earn a very modest salary and must pay a per capita tax. I can tell you of many very worthy women in the rural sections of the State who have no means of employment whatever, but are already dependant upon brothers or sons or other members of the household, and it is absolutely imposing a real hardship upon very many worthy people, not to say an indignity because it carries with it the power to arrest and jail the women who default in their payment, many of whom cannot otherwise pay it than by applying to the charity of those upon whom they are already dependant. I feel, therefore, that this bill should be voted down.

Mr. SPEER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I desire to say that this bill is not mandatory. The act as it now stands makes it voluntary and leaves it in the judgment of the board of directors to charge one dollar, they may charge two dollars or five dollars. There are certain districts in the State of Pennsylvania where the people of one third of the district pay all of the tax and three-fourths of them happen to be miners, or happen to be in manufactories or in steel mills and whose children attend the schools. The schools are filled with at least three-fourths of the children of those who pay no tax whatsoever, and this bill is for the purpose of helping out districts of that kind where the parents of three-fourths of the children pay no tax whatever, and it does appeal to me that ten dollars for a parent to send his children, possibly three or four of them, to school for one year, for the sum of ten dollars it is a very small amount. I therefore ask that it be considered, it being optional in school districts who don't need the ten dollars, the school board don't need to put that ten dollars on each resident. It may put on the sum of one dollar. it is only to help the districts where possibly three-quarters of the taxpayers pay no taxes whatever and the burden falls wholly upon one quarter of the residents of the school districts.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Gelnett,

Less than the majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative and the bill falls.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 766, entitled:

An Act providing for the examination of custodians engineers assistant custodian assistant engineers and firemen of school houses in first second and third class school districts defining their duties fixing their minimum salaries and payment for overtime

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LUDLOW. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill which is before you for consideration No. 766, on page 10, of the calendar, is another inroad into the powers of the local school directors. If it is put into affect. under the mandatory scale of wages fixed in the later part of the act it will cost every school district a very much larger sum of maney than it costs today to run their districts. In the city of Philadelphia alone, I am advised by a member of the board that the increase will be over $375,000 a year, and in the other districts will be equally bad. I I call your attention to the act and ask that you vote against it.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Davis, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. Davis. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WITKIN. Will you please state to the members of the House the necessity for legislation of this kind?

Mr. DAVIS. The bill was presented by me upon request by the custodians in the State of Pennsyvnaia.

Mr. WITKIN. Then do I understand that the sponsor of this bill is not familiar with the contents thereof?

Mr. DAVIS. I am familiar with the bill.

Mr. WITKIN. If the sponsor of the bill is familiar with the contents of the bill may I ask him to explain to the members of the House, the reason for or the necessity for legislation of this kind?

Mr. DAVIS. The principle reason I think they presented this bill is because the custodians take care of the health of our children. In many districts the school controllers are so sympathetic that they employ decrepit men to take care of the school houses, and very often they are incompetent. so the principle interest I have in it is the health of the children.

Mr. WITKIN. May I ask the sponsor of this bill whether it applies to the schools in the sponsors' district?

Mr. DAVIS. It does.

Mr. WITKIN. May I ask the sponsor whether or not he believes legislation which provides that in order to have an engineer take care of a school with one room that it is not necessary for the person to take an examination to qualify as an engineer for a school of one or two rooms?

Mr. DAVIS. Not necessary.

Mr. WITKIN. This act provides that in a case of that kind he shall take an examination does it not?

Mr. DAVIS. We can amend that.

Mr. WITKIN. May I ask the sponsor of this bill further, whether or not he believes that it is advisable legislation to provide that an engineer shall be on duty on days when schools are not in session and make it mandatory for those custodians or engineers to be on duty from nine o'clock in the morning until five o'clock in the evening when the school is not in session.

Mr. DAVIS. Your question is very ambiguous.

Mr. WITKIN. So is the bill.

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 866 as follows:

An Act fixing the salaries of directors of the poor directors of the Home for the Destitute and directors of the house of employment in poor districts co-extensive with counties of the third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth class

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the salary of directors of the poor directors of the Home for the Destitute and directors of the house of employment in poor districts co-extensive with counties of the third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth class shall be as follows

In counties of the third class three thousand ($3,000) dollars per year in counties of the fourth class twenty-five hundred ($2500) dollars per year in counties of the fifth class eighteen hundred ($1800) dollars per year in counties of the sixth class twelve hundred ($1200) dollars per year in counties of the seventh class eight hundred and fifty dollars ($850) per year and in counties of the eighth class six hundred ($600) dollars per year

Section 2 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The Speaker. Will the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. McCormick, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McCORMICK. Yes sir, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. RHODES. Will the gentleman state what changes are made in the existing salaries by this bill?

Mr. McCORMICK. Mr. Speaker, the bill in its present form provides for an increase in salaries in the poor districts of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth class districts of approximately fifty percent. The bill is the creature of the State Association of Poor Directors, and at this time they agree with me that the increase is too much. We do not care to spend any more time in amending the bill in the House, but if thebill passes in its present form I will be personally responsible in the Senate to having the increases cut approximately in half, and also to exclude counties of the seventh and eighth classes.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, there is, perhaps, no position to-day in the State of Pennsylvania that is being more efficiently and more honorably served than that of the directors of the poor of Pennsylvania. I would not raise my voice in objection to this bill were it not that my home district will be materially affected thereby. I think there is no office in our county I think there is no office in the State of Pennsylvania, and, perhaps, nowhere in the United States more honorably and more capably filled than that of the directors of the poor in Chester County, and I take it when we come to increase the salary instead of increasing the efficiency thereof, we will undoubtedly have men seeking the office for the emoluments thereof instead of the good they may do the district they represent. We have had in Chester County for the last forty years a board of directors of the poor that would be a credit to any position in the State. If you will pardon the reference, we have to-day in the county of Chester a man perhaps worth $20,000,000 who is serving in that capacity not for the salary but for the service he is willing to render and the good he may do his fellowmen. We have had, in years gone by, men of similar type, and I want to say to this House tonight that if you pass this bill and make the position more attractive from a salary viewpoint, you are going to reduce the efficiency of the service you will get. I want to say to you, and I beg of you, be willing to think just a moment before taking a step in the dark. Personally, I believe we will be making a serious and a very grave mistake and for one I must of necessity vote against it.

On the question recurring,

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL DROPPED FROM CALENDAR.

Mr. WILLISTON P. WOOD. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be dropped from the calendar.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 880, entitled:

An Act to amend section twelve hundred and eight and to repeal section twelve hundred and four of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and nine) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" further regulating the dismissal of principals and teachers and repealing the present provision limiting contracts to three years

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HARDING. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Eaches, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. EACHES. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HARDING. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman kindly inform the House the object to be gained by the passage of this bill?

Mr. EACHES. Mr. Speaker, this bill carries no appropriation nor does it increase salaries. The only thing it does do is to provide that before a teacher can be dismissed he or she shall be given a trial before the board. That is the sole provision in the bill.

Mr. HARDING. Mr. Speaker, I do not believe there is a member in this House who would oppose any bill which he believed was for the benefit of the school system of this Commonwealth, neither do I believe that any member in this House would knowingly favor a bill which would be detrimental to the interests of our schools. Let us look at this bill just for a moment, comparing it with the legislation we now have on the statute books. In the first place, I call your attention to section 2; we find that section 1204 is taken out of the code entirely. That section reads, "Teachers of merit and experience who hold State certificates which exempt their holders from further examination may be elected for any length of time not exceeding three years." That is stricken out in the present bill. Section 1208, remains as it was with the following additions: "Any principal or teacher who has been employed for three consecutive years in any school district may be dismissed during the year or at the end of any school term by a majority vote of the board of school directors." So far, Mr. Speaker, the present bill is identical with the original system in the code, but now we have the vicious part of this bill: "But only after charges have been filed against such principal or teacher and a hearing afforded him or her after reasonable notice in writing." This is the old tenure bill again which you have voted down for several sessions. I remember, it came out in 1921 and was pushed and has been pushed ever since to try and force it upon the people in the fourth class districts. I have no objections whatever, Mr. Speaker, to having a tenure bill in the first and second-class districts, and possibly in the third class, because the action there will be entirely different from a tenure bill like this if it is placed on the fourth class districts. We all realize that the school system of our Commonwealth depends very largely upon the kind of school directors we place on the board of education. In our smaller places and smaller villages, in order to select these men, we must take business men, as a rule, to get the best timber for the board. Now, no member of the board who is in business will consent to be a member of the school board again if he knows he is liable to come into a trial where you have to prefer charges against a teacher before dismissal, where the town will be torn apart in dissension, and if these business men are going to lose trade they will refuse to serve as such a member as they do now. Now then, this necessity for tenure does not seem to exist in any other profession. Why is it that we should say to our teachers that if our school teachers taught three years we will keep them forever, and even if we cannot prefer charges such as are now in the code. Many of our teachers are incompetent and under this bill we must make charges against them and try them. There is no opportunity given to clean house at all in your school districts; none whatever, if you pass this bill. You also take away the incentive for better work from the teacher which should always be before them. When this bill came up, in 1921, Professor Woodruff, the author of the Woodruff bill, was asked this question: he was asked if he had a permanent position. He said, "I always so considered it." He was professor in a college, but he said, "Gentlemen, had I not had such a permanent position I would have been a much better teacher", and that is the case to-day with every teacher. No district wants to discharge a teacher who is good, and I can see but two reasons for this bill. One of them is, that in some cases occasionally politics may enter into the schools and, perhaps, a teacher or principal is dismissed, but that is not the case over the whole State. Why make a bill to cover two thousand fourth class districts when it only occurs in one, two or three instances? That is the greatest trouble with our law-making to-day; we take a little case in our own district and spread the law over the whole State. Another reason may be, and I think it is unwise and unfair on the part of the teachers, they may think that if they get these permanent positions in this way then follow it with a pension, their future is secure until death. That is a nice way to put things; that is a nice way to have it, but I do not know of any other profession that has this same portunity or that the State of Pennsylvania gives that opportunity to. If you want our schools to be good; if you want to continue that upward progress, we should defeat this bill in order that we may keep good men on the school board.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, as a teacher I want to say to the members of this House that I have no personal interest in this bill. I have been teaching school for thirty-two years and in the last twenty-six years in the same district. And I feel personally that I do not need this bill. However, I believe that the opponents of this bill are unduly alarmed about the effects of it. Now, the impression has gone abroad that this takes away the authority of the school boards. Under this bill, the school board will still be judges of the law and the facts the same as they are now. They will remain the judge and jury in the case the same as they are now. All this bill really does is than it does away with the star chamber proceedings. Now, I have often felt humiliated that I have to go back every year with an application and ask the school board if I may have my position again. if I may have my job again. Even the girl behind the ribbon counter does not have to do that, or the man in the factory, or the man in the steel mill or the man at the iron furnace, none of them has to go year after year and say can I be employed here again can I retain my job? This bill makes the action of the school board negative instead of positive every year. We have given to the firemen and to the policemen the same rights; the Federal Government is protecting its employees at Washington under a form of civil service. Now the law of Pennsylvania places on the school teachers certain unpleasant duties; for instance, the school teacher must enforce the compulsory shall law, which we all know is very unpopular in many sections; the teacher must enforce the health law, the vaccination law, and other laws which are unpopular. Any parent who has any greviance against a teacher can go around behind his back and whisper into the ears of the school board, and the teacher is never given a hearing. Why the lowest and meanest criminal in Pennsylvania has a chance to be heard before courts before he shall be convicted, and yet the school teachers of Pennsylvania must submit their cases to a board without any chance of defending themselves. All they know or find out is that after the school teachers are elected the report comes out that they have not been re-elected. If anybody should prefer secret charges against them before the school board, the teachers do not even get a chance of a public hearing to defend themselves. All this bill really does is that it gives the teacher the right to a public defense and the right to a trial before the school board to be heard, and if in the judgment of the school board they feel, and if they feel they do not wish to retain the teacher then they have the same power as they now have under the present law. They will still be, as I said a moment ago, both the judge and the jury in the case. I feel that this is a good bill and should be passed. Now, they have such a law in a number of the States in the Union, and not one of the States that has adopted such laws has ever repealed them. In the city of Philadelphia they grant that voluntarily, and, if I am correctly informed, in the city of Pittsburgh they grant that voluntarily. In not one of the States of the Union where such a law is on the statute books has it ever been repealed, and if it works out in other States and in Philadelphia, Allegheny and other communities, I believe it will work out in Pennsylvania.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken.

Mr. BUSH. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The SPEAKER. The roll will be verified.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE.

Mr. STERLING asked and obtained unanimous consent to report bills from committee.

Mr. STERLING, from the Committee on Ways and Means, reported as committed House Bill No. 1644, entitled:

An Act to amend an act, approved June twentieth, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, five twenty-one), entitled "An act providing for the imposition and collection of certain taxes upon the transfer of property passing from a decedent who was a resident of this Commonwealth at the time of his death, and of property within this Commonwealth of a decedent who was a non-resident of the Commonwealth at the time of his death; and making it unlawful for any corporation of this Commonwealth, or national banking association located therein, to transfer the stock of such corporation or banking association, standing in the name of any such decedent, until the tax on the transfer thereof has been paid; and providing penalties; and citing certain acts for repeal," as amended, by fixing the time within which transfers by decedents are presumed to have been made in contemplation of death; making estates of entirety and joint estates with right of survivorship taxable; fixing the time for the register to make return and payment to the Auditor General and State Treasurer.

Mr. STERLING, from the Committee on Ways and Means, reported as amended House Bill No. 540, entitled:

An Act to amend section one and section seventeen, as amended, of an act approved the seventeenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (P. L. 507), entitled "An act to provide revenue for State and county purposes, and, in cities co-extensive with counties, for city and county purposes; imposing taxes upon certain classes of personal property; providing for the assessment and collection of the same; providing for the duties and compensation of prothonotaries and recorders in connection therewith; and modifying existing legislation which provided for raising revenue for State purposes."

Mr. STERLING, from the Committee on Ways and Means, reported as amended House Bill No. 1334, entitled:

An Act to further amend section twenty of the act approved the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine (P. L. 420), entitled "A further supplement to an act entitled 'An act to provide revenue by taxation,' approved the seventh day of June, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine," by exempting corporations of the first class having no capital stock from filing an annual report with the Auditor General.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to have the bills just reported read for the first time.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, there have been a number of objections to-night to having other bills read for the first time, and I do not think it is fair that we let these bills be read for the first time when the other bills were objected to. Therefore, I object to these bills being read for the first time.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objection.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE.

Mr. GREENSTEIN asked and obtained unanimous consent to report a bill from committee.

Mr. GREENSTEIN, from the Committee on Judiciary General, reported as committed House Bill No. 1403, entitled:

An Act to prevent unfair discrimination against Pennsylvania manufacturers, by making it unlawful for any municipality to levy license taxes of fees against such manufacturers that are not levied against nonresident manufacturers.

Mr. STERLING, from the Committee on Judiciary General, reported as committed, House Bill No. 948, (Senate Bill No. 13), entitled:

An Act providing a method of ascertaining the opinion of the electors of the Commonwealth as to the desirability of ratifying the proposed amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

Mr. STERLING, from the Committee on Ways and Means, re-reported as amended, House Bill No. 1555, entitled:

An Act to amend sections three and nine of the act approved the fifteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred and thirty-four) entitled "An act imposing a State tax including an additional emergency State tax on liquid fuels including all liquids ordinarily practically and commercially usable in internal combustion engines for the generation of power and all distillates of and condensates from petroleum natural gas coal coal tar and vegetable ferments so usable and sold in this Commonwealth except for the purpose of resale providing for the collection of such tax and for the distribution and use of the revenues derived therefrom providing for the filing of certificates and reports of the sale of such liquid fuels to dealers and fixing penalties."

HOUSE BILL No. 1555 MADE SPECIAL ORDER.

Mr. WHEELER. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 1555, entitled:

An Act to amend section three of the act approved the fifteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred and thirty-four) entitled "An act imposing a State tax including an additional emergency State Tax on liquid fuels including all liquids ordinarily practically and commercially usable in internal combustion engines for the generation of power and all distillites of and condensates from petroleum natural gas coal coal tar and vegetable ferments so usuable and sold in this Commonwealth except for the purpose of resale providing for the collection of such tax and for the distribution and use of the revenues derived therefrom providing for the filing of certificates and reports of the sale of such liquid fuels to dealers and fixing penalties" be made a special order of business on third reading and final passage on Wednesday, April 8th, at 8:30 o'clock P. M.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER announced the "nays" appeared to have it.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Mr. Speaker, may I not state to the House what this bill is. It is the one cent gasoline tax bill and it is necessary to have it pass to-morrow if we are going to get it through in time to reach the Senate.

Mr. WHEELER. Mr. Speaker, in view of the opposition to the hour chosen, I amend the motion to read 12:00 o'clock, noon, to-morrow.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Mr. Speaker, I second the amendment.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion as amended?

It was agreed to.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal

Session 1925 126th of the General Assembly

Vol. 8. HARRISBURG, PA., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 8, 1925. No. 36.

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, April 8th, 1925.

The Senate met at 11 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor David J. Davis) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Acting Chaplain, Rev. George P. Donehoo, offered the following prayer:

Our Heavenly Father, we thank Thee this bright morning for the promise of springtime and summer, that after the cold and ice of winter the earth is again being covered with its mantle of green and the flowers. May we all of us, regardless of creed or sect, at this springtime and during this week, which is celebrated throughout the whole world, be raised to a newness of life and to a real springtime of joy and happiness with the glorious hope that with us as with this earth, which was so recently seemingly dead that we all of us, after having passed through the valley of the shadow, may enter into the springtime of Immortal Day. Bless this Senate, be with the presiding officers and all of these members. Bless all of us in our official duties and bless each one in our personal experience of poy and sorrow. We ask in Thy name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session. session, when, on motion of Mr. BUCKMAN, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

NAYS—1.

MacDade,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1134, entitled:

An Act applying to third class counties only and regulating the selection drawing and summoning of all jurors and talesmen and defining their qualifications in such counties creating a jury board and defining its poyers and procedure providing for the appointment of a clerk to the jury board and fixing his maximum salary providing for the custody of the jury wheel and the filing and custody of jury lists providing for the public drawing of jurors and the methods thereof giving the trial judge the right to excuse jurors prescribing the time of challeuging jurors or the array and regulating the procedure if array is quashed repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent therewith

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, this is one of the jury bills that are before the Senate, and I desire to call attention to some matters therein, so that the Senate will be fully informed of what they are voting upon.

The first matter I desire to call attention to is in Section I of the bill, which provides that this bill takes effect within ten days of the passage of the act, and approval by the Governor. At the present time in the County of Westmoreland we have a jury summoned for the May term of court; and in the event that this bill should be passed and approved I do not know what may happen to that panel of jurors. There is no provision in the bill which would take care of that.

I desire also to call attention to the fact that the board, under this bill, is to consist of the entire board of judges. As I understand, one of the counties has five judges; so the board would consist of five judges and two jury commissioners; and in a number of counties there are a different number of judges and there would be a different number on this board of jury commissioners. In eight of the counties the judges number not less than three; so that the judges would conrol the entire selection of jurors under the provisions of this bill, without regard to the jury commissioners. They have no power whatever.

I also desire to call attention to Section 2, which provides that "only adult citizens of the United States residents of the county and able to understand the English language shall be eligible as jurors." I do not know anything about the definition of the word "adult," but it seems to me, upon investigation of the authorities, that there is a distinction. It is defined in The Century Dictionary as an adjective and as a noun,—as having arrived at mature years or attained full size and strength, as an adult person. The same definition is given in Webster's and the International Dictionary. This, then, might indicate that persons under twenty-one years of age could serve as jurors.

I call attention to Section 3, which provides as follows: "On or before the tenth day of October of each year each member of the jury board shall deliver to the clerk a list containing the names of said member's proportionate share of the number of qualified jurors required for jury service for the ensuing year as established by the court of common pleas in its last order filed on the subject, and, in addition thereto, fifty names of other persons qualified for jury service."

Now, if we have a board consisting of seven members, in the event that one or two of them should neglect to file their lists, then the entire work of this jury board is clogged.

Then, again, on line 25 you find this: "The clerk shall eliminate from said lists any duplicate names, and the persons from whose lists said duplicates have been eliminated shall furnish substitutes therefor." If you have the same names on two lists, you eliminate those names. Now, at the time that may happen we may have eliminated all the best men and women that are on that list.

Again, on page 4, which is part of Section 3, at the end of line 10, it provides: "By a vote of a majority of the members of the jury board any names not exceeding three hundred in number may be stricken from the complete list, or, by a vote of all the members of the jury board less one any number of names may be stricken from said list." This would put in the hands of the judges the authority to strike out and practically eliminate any of the names that the jury commissioners would put in there. I think that is objectionable.

Then, we find further down on the same page that it provides for a typewritten list of jurors, and it imposes the duty upon the judges as follows: "This list shall be in duplicate and shall be signed by the jury commissioners by at least two judges of the court of common pleas and by the clerk to the jury board." One copy is placed in the office of the prothonotary and the other shall be in the custody of the court.

In Section 4 I desire to call attention to that part of the bill which provides, "The court may by order filed prescribe the form of the jury wheel and its lock and the care and custody of said wheel and the keys thereto."

Now, on page 6 of the bill, relative to the addresses stating the residences of the jurors, it is provided that the addresses of the jurors shall be placed in the jury wheel.

It seems to me that is not a desirable thing. The residence ought to be located so that the list itself will establish that the jurors are residents of the proper county or district.

Again, in the drawing and in the summoning of these jurors, the bill provides that the clerk,—who, by the way, is appointed by the judges of the court of common pleas, and removable at pleasure,—this clerk sends out the cards containing return-cards, and if no answer is received within five days, then it provides that the sheriff shall give notice; but, in addition thereto the bill also abolishes the writs that are issued by the sheriff to the jury commissioners, and says that writ shall be issued by the court and directed to the jury commissioners; and, herefore, there is no writ provided, and no provision for getting the sheriff to perform duties of this kind. So, if he chooses he may serve them or may not, there is nothing in the bill that compels him to make personal service on these jurors.

It is very objectionable on page 8, in Section 6, which provides that "The drawing shall be in the presence of at least one jury comissioner and at least one judge of the court of common pleas, and shall be open to the public." This, so far from being required, in my judgment would make it possible if one of the jury commissioners should not want to attend, he could stay away,—so that there would be no way by which a drawing shall be held.

The bill also eliminates the sheriff from any duties whatever in connection with the drawing of the jury,—as we have it in the old law.

These are some of the inequalities that are in this bill, and there are others of the same character; and I say, therefore, that the bill is not a complete bill. It does not make a complete, and understandable system of filling the jury wheel and of summoning jurors. And I therefore ask you whether it is the right thing to do to pass a bill of this character, which will always be the source of litigation and of controversy in the courts,—because there are numerous places in which these questions are raised.

I therefore ask that the bill be defeated.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, without these jury bills it certainly would not look like home here in the Senate Chamber. The only trouble with the Senator from Westmoreland is that he has fallen into a bad practice. His county of Westmoreland is a very good boy and the counties of Luzerne and Lackawanna seem to be very bad boys. He has fallen into bad company and it has been very hard on the Senator from Westmoreland.

I believe that both bills will go over to the House, and I shall be very sorry to lose them. I have been gaining so much publicity on this jury bill, together with my statesmanlike vote on the Japanese Beetle, that I have nearly enough issues to go before the people and contest the United States Senatorship with Governor Pinchot. I am sorry to lose this issue, and I believe we are going away to-day.

As for the ten days, if the Senator will remember, according to the Constitution the Governor has thirty days in which to sign this bill after the adjournment of our Legislature. I think there will be no difficulty about that.

I cannot follow the Senator in his definition of what "adult" is, but I should say these are both adult bills. They have reached the age of maturity, certainly.

Now, I am not capable of entering into any detailed argument with the Senator and lawyer; I will simply say that the bill I represent,—that I sponsor, Judge Meaxey's bill, has the endorsement of all the bench and bar of Luzerne and Lackawanna Counties; and, I think I am violating no confidence in saying it has been visited by the Chief Justice of the State. I hope, therefore, the Senators will say good-bye to both jury bills.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON THIRD READING POSTPONED FOR THE PRESENT

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resume the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1171, (House Bill No. 1120), entitled:

An Act to amend an act approved the twenty-third day of May one thonsand nine hundred and twenty-three (P. L. 327) entitled "A supplement to an act approved the twenty-third day of June one thousand nine hundred and eleven (P. L. 1123) entitled 'An act establishing in each county a board of viewers prescribing their duties providing for their appointment as viewers road juries juries of view and commissioners to view land and providing for the charges upon the respective counties in the matter of salaries costs and expenses thereof' as the same was amended and supplemented by subsequent acts by providing for the compensation to be paid to the members of the board of viewers in counties of the second class" providing for the compensation of members of the Board of Viewers in counties of the first and second classes

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend the last line of the title by striking out the words "and second classes" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "class'; also section 1, page 2, line 24 by striking out the words "and class."

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

BILL ON THIRD READING POSTPONED FOR THE PRESENT

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resume the consideration of Senate Bill No. 377, on final passage postponed for the present, entitled:

An Act to amend section six hundred and forty of the act approved the fourteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (P. L. 840) entitled "An act concerning townships and revising amending and consolidating the law relating thereto"

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I desire again to call the attention of the Senators to this bill, which is amended in Section 640 on July 14th, 1917; and you will observe, in this section, that as the law now stands it reads as follows:

"Except as otherwise in this act provided, or except as otherwise provided by local or special legislation, all roads wholly within or partly within townships of the second class and all roads partly within townships of the first class shall be laid out, widened, changed or vacated by the courts of quarter sessions as heretofore, in the manner provided by the general road law and the amendments, additions and supplements thereto."

Now, the amendment that is in this bill, and which will cause, in my judgment, a great deal of trouble, is as follows:

"Provided, however, that no public road shall be opened or vacated until the plan and specifications showing such location or vacation, and the width of any proposed highway, has been approved by the board of township supervisors or commissioners of the township or townships in which such road is proposed to be located or vacated, * * * *"

Now, by that provision, after the courts have laid out and provided for the width of a road, and decreed the road,—then the board of supervisors is established as a board of appeal to change or modify the orders of the court; and that means not only in one county but in every county of the Commonwealth where this proceeding may be located. And while there may be conditions in which I can imagine that this would be all right in its present form, it is not, to my mind, a good provision to have the board of supervisors change or modify in any way whatever that which the courts have determined.

Then, again, the bill provides that all new roads shall be graded at a grade established by the supervisors or commissioners, at the expense of the persons who petitioned for the road. Now, that makes a general provision, and every Senator in this body is undobutedly interested in that. The provision, in my mind, would make it an impossibility for the ordinary roads to be opened in any county of the Commonwealth unless there is some concerted move by which the petitioners for that road would be indemnified for their liability when they put their signatures to a petition for the new road. I think, therefore, that this bill should not pass.

Mr. McDADE. Mr. President and Fellows Senators, this bill we had up for consideration yesterday, and I made an agreement with the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Kunkle, that if he offered any amendments to the bill I would be glad to consider them, if it did not destroy the purpose of the bill, would agree to them; but up to the present time he has not suggested anything at all, and I believe he has not because he is against the principle of the bill.

As far as the bill is concerned, it is perfectly harmless, and is not such a monstrosity as the Gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Kunkle, has pictured in his endeavor to convince every Senator that this is a bad piece of legislation and should not be passed.

It does not change the practice with regard to the grading of roads, but it is directed to the curbing of a growing evil that exists in every part of the Commonwealth, especially in those parts adjacent to large cities where there are land improvement companies and other land owners who will project a building operation and depict beautifully upon the maps the streets of the development; and then, after selling their land to the purchasers, they withdraw from the neighborhood and go to Palm Beach or Miami and continue to make money. Then these purchasers petition the township commissioners or supervisors to place these streets upon the city plan.

The purpose of this bill is not to interfere with the jurisdiction of the courts, because the roads will be opened and vacated in the usual way; and, as far as the courts are concerned, a road cannot be opened or vacated until there is a formal order of the court. Especially as to the opening of a road,—the road is not opened automatically but there has to be an order issued by the court to the commissioners or supervisors of the township before that road can be physically opened.

So, the purpose of it is to prevent these companies and promotors from becoming general nuisances, in that many purchasers are deceived by these promotors of real estate schemes who lay out streets on these plans. They are "paper streets,"—you might call them; and the commissioners and supervisors want to have some knowledge of what is going on in the laying out of streets on private property, so that when the time comes to take them over as part of their highway system they are at proper grade; and it is only the paying of the costs of the grading of the streets so they will be in accord with other streets or highways established in those districts.

This bill was suggested by the supervisors and commissioners in my county, the County of Delaware, in convention assquired, and they, as I understand, in conjunction with other townships and commissioners in the State of Pennsylvania, and it also has the approval of the Department of Highways.

The Gentleman from Westmoreland seems to be very technical indeed. I never heard a Senator and a Gentleman of the Bar picture such a stupendous proposition when he was really only staining at a gnat. Small projects are presented as big projects. There is nothing to be scared about in this bill. If there is anything wrong about the bill, certainly you can correct it over in the House of Representatives,—because the original bill is presented here. I see nothing wrong obout the bill; and I invited suggestions, especially from Senator Buckman and the Highway Department. I hope you will pass the bill notwithstanding these objections.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I want to add one word in reply to the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McDade. It is true he suggested that I should prepare amendments,—but there is where the trouble begins; You connot make a special amendement to the general road law in order to control a corporation or an individual that is laying out a private real estate development and laying out roads in that development. In my judgment you cannot so amend a general road law, because you would have special legislation that is of no general value.

I believe that the only way the matter of laying out roads and of grading roads in such a special development, can be controlled is by providing a separate bill for that purpose. In my judgment it should not have any connection whatever with the laying out of public roads.

I realize just exactly what the Senator said, and I would be only too glad to assist in the passing of legislation compelling corporations or individuals who are exploiting lands or lots to put in proper conditions the streets or roads therein; but that, in my judgment, cannot be done except by a separate bill,—not by an amendment to the general road bill.

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Senate, it would be unbecoming in me to attempt to join in a learned legal discussion. I know that this bill has been placed before the Legislature in absolutely good faith. The whole intent is to simplify the large building operations going on adjacent to the City of Philadelphia, in Delaware and other counties; and I am assured by the District Attorney of Delaware County, in whose legal judgment I have confidence, that there is nothing harmful in this bill and that it will not make any very great departure, legally, from the conditions that obtain at the present time; that this bill is wholly in the interest of those building operations that are involving millions of dollars in the proximity of Philadelphia, in the eastern end of the State. I hope the bill will pass.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I should like to interrogate the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McDade.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McDade, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McDADE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, does this require a majority of property interests, that is, in foot frontage on streets or roads, before the petition is taken under consideration?

Mr. McDADE. Mr. President, I do not so understand it. All new roads shall be graded to the grade centers established by the supervisords or commissioners,—at the expense of the petittioners who petitioned for the opening of the roads.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, does it require a majority of interests?

Mr. McDADE. Mr. President, that would require "the petitioners". That means all.

Mr. LESLIE. We have similar legislation with regard to the opening of streets, and the grading, curbing and paving, which has been in vogue since 1895. It requires a majority of interests,—I mean a majority of foot frontage interests, and takes out of the control of those who have been reluctant and have blocked the question of opening up streets and avenues; and, under the Act of 1895, a majority of petitioners in interest is sufficient to open a street and to grade and curb it,— at the expense, certainly, of the people owing property abutting on the street.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—30.

Aron,	Finstein,	Krause,	Quigley,
Baldwin,	Eyre,	Leslie,	Snyder,
